

“Woe. Woe. Woe.”

July 27, 2024

9:52 p.m.

YAHWEH YIELDS IT:

I appreciate the work he (the speaker) is doing, but there is something he is not seeing well. There are prophets still yet to come, as mentioned in Scripture. Servant, quote his words, the one or two phrases he states.

SEERSGATE STATES IT:

“The Old and New Testaments—they are the final revelations of God. God is not speaking to anyone anymore.”

YAHWEH CONTINUES:

If he says My Word is true, why doesn't he stand by it? Yahweh says there are prophets still yet to come, yet he (the speaker) says that Yahweh no longer says anything. That is a glance of his saying. He says to avoid anyone who says God told them something.

With prophecy, as noted through Yahweh's servants, in the office placement, Yahweh will go and yield sayings that pertain to other plans that do not deal with life and Christian living. The word of the LORD, within a specific detail, can include judgments.

Woe. Woe. Woe.

The people of the very end of days will have the same way of thinking in their speech and will say that those men, those witnesses, are not God's chosen and will ignore them.

Woe. Woe. Woe.

All of Revelation has not played out. They (the writers of Scripture) wrote down the given Word in Me, but the actual dealings still need to be revealed in the earth within natural time, including hearing the way Yahweh states His will within those who have been given a plan to be beheaded and will die within the very evil reigning timeframe within the end of natural days before the Day of the LORD is here.

Look at how the angel will declare the Gospel. There are messages from three angels (See Revelation 14:6-13). My Word is still being spoken. See how closing the canon does not stop Yahweh from talking to His creation.

(6) Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people. (7) And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come, and worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

—Revelation 14:6-7 ESV

Why is an angel declaring the Word? Where is the Church?

Look at how another angel is stating a warning of the punishment and permanent separation from Yahweh:

(9) And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, (10) he also will drink the wine of God's wrath, poured full strength into the cup of His anger, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. (11) And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever, and they have no rest, day or night, these worshipers of the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name.”

—Revelation 14:9-11 ESV

Is this angel carrying evil traits for giving such a harsh way from Yahweh? The angel's way is to state what Yahweh says will be the coming way.

Beware of those who say that Yahweh no longer talks, for they are the ones who prime the people to ignore My chosen servants who are still yet to come.

(3) And I will grant authority to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth.”

(4) These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth. (5) And if anyone would harm them, fire pours from their mouth and consumes their foes. If anyone would harm them, this is how he is doomed to be killed. (6) They have the power to shut the sky, that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying, and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague, as often as they desire. (7) And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that rises from the bottomless pit will make war on them and conquer them and kill them, (8) and their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city that symbolically is called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was crucified. (9) For three and a half days some from the peoples and tribes and languages and nations will gaze at their dead bodies and refuse to let them be placed in a tomb, (10) and those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and make merry and exchange presents, because these two prophets had been a torment to those who dwell on the earth. (11) But after the three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. (12) Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" And they went up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them.

—Revelation 11:3-12 ESV

Look at WHO gives authority to the witnesses. That's an authoritative standing, the way given to the witnesses, these mouthpieces stating Yahweh's way. I can grant authority to anyone to say My plan.

I can bring forward a prophet whenever a course correction is needed. No era holds Yahweh's mouth shut, and the prophet trait can stem in a man or woman. The prophet trait is seated in Yahweh and imparted to the servant. Male and female, those called to the office of a prophet/servant, will carry the prophet placement without any separation within the title. And when Yahweh says, "Say Yahweh's plan," no current culture, religion, or tradition of man will stop Yahweh.

Yes, you should not believe everyone who says that Yahweh says something, and he is correct to say a correction when dealing with the person who is given in his seeing way. Yet there must be a weary plan in seeing how cutting off all plans of how Yahweh can speak to the created ones is a potentially deadly plan that will lead the people to throw away the power talk from Yahweh when they are under a hearing way.

Yahweh is not subject to how humans closed off the Books and put them all in one bound Bible power plan. How can man state that I am done with yielding out great wisdom in authoritative sayings when I still have to bring the written Word into the natural plan? Yahweh must move prophecy into natural dealings regardless of whether the original apostle from the early Church days lives in a natural plan.

Be aware, and be prepared.
