

DEATH, FEAR, AND NEW AGE

Cave Training, Kodiak, Alaska

STAGE ONE / ENTRY ONE

Last night was the first of a series of training sessions in dealing with demon influences. They have been given an entryway to come and operate in the place where I have been living. The Great King has willed this so that the servant will be well-rounded to deal with the different ranks of demon influences, even Satan. There is no way to fully explain this training method other than to write detailed accounts of what took place in each training session.

I noticed that the demons had different voices: they didn't sound like the others. Their tone didn't scare me, yet I realized I must fully listen to the Great Holy Spirit and do the will He would bring me. It started at a late hour—after eleven in the evening. The Great Holy Spirit spoke to me, stating, "It has begun." I knew He was referring to the training He mentioned in a recent meeting, which I expected to move into doing. I was ready to receive the Great Holy Spirit's plan, even though I didn't know what would occur in these real warfare training meetings with demons.

The first demon to arrive was unlike what you would expect. It didn't sound like an evil spirit would. Hearing a kinder-sounding voice made me think most would be easily persuaded to follow this demon, because it sounds different from the voices in movies that portray demons in a certain way. When the Great Holy Spirit told me the demon was in the place to deal with me, I knew it was no longer a regular student-Teacher type of training. I knew that the demons sent to deal with me longed to destroy this servant and took full advantage of the opportunity, even if sent as "training toys."

I was there, lying on my bed, waiting for the demon to approach me. I waited for Yahweh's plan when dealing with each demon before speaking out loud. There was no room to move in doing what I read in a book, nor was there a way to gauge what the demon would do based on what I saw in a movie. I learned that the Great Holy Spirit would be the best Teacher to deal with any demon in real time as the details unfold. The first demon came, and I thought nothing much of it. The demons were in the room, yet I could not feel them near me with my spiritual office traits, as in other dealings. Yahweh is teaching me to listen with my spiritual ears, hear the words, and respond based on what the Great Holy Spirit would speak.

This training teaches me to deal with demons, using my spiritual hearing solely. To train this way required knowing the Great Holy Spirit's voice, the voice of the angels in the room, and then knowing the difference when the demon spoke. Demons were once angels that rebelled against Yahweh. Satan is a demon and leads all devils under his plan.

One demon came and spoke, quoting a Bible verse and asking me if I believed that no weapon formed against me shall prosper. I didn't know that a demon would do that, where they would quote Scripture first to move to destroy me. Sure, we know of Satan using Scripture against King Jesus when He was in the wilderness, but it was different for me to hear active sayings against me. Scripture came from the demon.

This experience makes me see that the unseen realm may move in creatures that know more of the Word than a true believer in Christ. There I waited for the Great Holy Spirit to speak. Yahweh told me of that demon and what he would do to different people, to weaken them. This demon would move through weapons against the saints to weaken their shield in the unseen. The believer must put on the armor of the Great King Jesus but must make sure they are well-equipped with the Word of God in studied ways.

As the Great Holy Spirit revealed this demon's motive, I began to drink even deeper into the will of the Great Teacher. The Great Holy Spirit told me to speak to the demon this way: "The Word is Truth, and you have a wrong motive to use this." This statement is the essence of what was spoken so you could drink it. I told the demon that the Word is true; it is not to be debated; it stands on its own without needing to debate with a demon regarding the Word and its ability to protect me. Then we waited for a reply. I had also told the demon to go where King Jesus would send him.

Most of the demons would state the same reply when told to go where King Jesus would send them. They would say, "King Jesus sent us." It was amazing to note that the demons who spoke would recognize that the One True Moving is the Great King Jesus. There was a full acknowledgment that the Great King Jesus is who they have to submit to, even over their master, Satan. I liked that. That made it clear that all authority is truly given to the Great King Jesus, just as the Scripture states.

DEATH AND FEAR

Some demons came in a group. They said, "We are here." That was different. I noted they knew Yahweh sent them as training tools and that I was waiting for them to show themselves. They came and spoke, but I didn't address them until the Great Holy Spirit gave me a drink of His wisdom, showing me how to deal with them. He told me who they were: They were the demons of death and fear. The demons stood in the room, waiting for instructions for the training.

These were demons who moved differently than the movies would project them. These demons were instructed to leave based on the authority given to me in the name of King Jesus. Their reply was the same as the others: "King Jesus sent us." I waited for the Great Holy Spirit to reveal even more about these details. So, since King Jesus sent them, I couldn't make them leave. So, the Great Holy Spirit had me instruct them to "go to another place in the dwelling, but don't come any closer." Some replied, "Yes."

I noted that other demons were angry that they could not get any deeper into their wicked way to move to destroy me.

NEW AGE

A demon came, and I didn't know it. The Great Holy Spirit had to tell me a demon was in the room. I needed Him to tell me this because the demon didn't speak. So, at the leading of the Great Holy Spirit, I had to get some details for it to leave. It didn't have to go, so I had the demon moved to a different place in the house, as with the others. There was a moment when I noted my thoughts were being affected. And it got my attention since they were very contrary to what I would usually think. The Great Holy Spirit confirmed that a demon was in the room with me. So, at the leading of the Great Yahweh, I also turned to address this demon.

One demon came in of great rank. I only know this due to the Great Holy Spirit revealing this detail. It was a demon of New Age. The demon's motive was to get the people to embrace the New Age moving, to look within and embrace themselves as a lowercase god. The demon was not happy that he was used as a training toy to teach me his ways. Even though he moved in the way of greater rank, this demon still had to submit to the authority of King Jesus. The angels also took him to another part of the house where I slept.

The demon who moved to deceive people through New Age influenced a person's thoughts to focus on a detail in a sinful leading. The demon named New Age would place thoughts that would lay a web for a deeper way of weakness to move into the believer if left to dwell on.

Engagement with the New Age demon showed me that I needed to keep my mind in order and think about things that bring glory to Yahweh. The mind should not wander or dwell on being emptied for inner ways of attempting to reach new levels in attaining godlikeness. This deception is what the New Age agenda will drive you to do, where you look to yourself for perfection and aim to become a higher power.

King Jesus doesn't want us to look to ourselves as a lowercase god. Focus and meditate on His Word. Focus on what the Great I AM says. Meditate on Scripture, not on reaching a higher plane in the spirit, where you hope to attain a position in higher consciousness. A form of demon influence pushes self-worship due to exalting yourself as a lowercase god. There can only be one God, and if you remove the Great King Jesus from a place of ruling within, you risk opening yourself to various demon influences through these things related to the New Age outlets.

Yoga is an outlet that brings spiritual bondage. Yoga is only another web of the devil established to get people to position themselves to open up to a demon influence. The root of yoga itself is in the principles of demon-based religions, but most will not see it. They consider the detail as a get-in-shape-relax type of element. They have truly moved this demon form of worship into movies, social gatherings, schools, and media outlets.

People invite yoga outlets to different ministries and events so that people can participate. Practicing yoga is a deeply embedded web laid by the enemy of the Great King Jesus. Do not join in yoga, a satanic action. If you have participated in yoga, ask King Jesus for forgiveness, renounce your sin, and ask the Great Holy Spirit how to strip away from involvement in yoga. Participating in these activities is not a detail to take lightly.

You should note that you can drink in the ways of Yahweh and still host a demon in your body. You are a territory. Know this, and don't be confused. Obey Yahweh's Word and do His will. Don't give heed to seducing spirits. Don't embrace any form of New Age. Seek the counsel of the Great Holy Spirit to know which spiritual doors are open to any demon influence. Don't live your life in fear, thinking you are entirely under demon possession. In possession cases, those fully taken over by a demon would lose the ability to act on their own will, and the demon would control the host —the person. Now you know; so, no longer be deceived.

A PRAYER FOR FREEDOM FROM NEW AGE

Yahweh, King of the universe, I have dabbled in sinful plans that have opened the spiritual doorway, causing torment. I am in Your will when I give You a full leading in my body, soul, and spirit. Right now, the God of all spirits, King Jesus, dwells in my whole way. Lord, create in me a clean heart and renew the right spirit in me. Please forgive me of my sins and for placing lowercase gods before You. Wash me, cleanse me, and seal Your purpose in my whole way with Your blood. Break off every trace of demonic influence from my work, home life, and social outlets. Bring a clear, seeing way so I will not sway or falter. Fill me with Your Great Holy Spirit. Help me to stand in Your will and be bold to declare Your way of healing. Thank You for loving me. Amen.

A THOUGHT TO PONDER

November 24, 2021

Dear Reader:

Can Yahweh intervene in your life? Can the God of the universe care enough to send help? If you bow down to Him within your whole being and cry out to Him, letting Him know how much you need His help, He will hear you. Yahweh cares, and He doesn't give us restrictions when dealing with the spirit realm to bring us a boring way of living. Yahweh wants us to remain free from the chains of bondage brought on by Satan and the other fallen angels, now called demons.

The world portrays these demons as a needed boost to have freedom and true life, yet if people would take a step back and look at how true freedom comes in love and correction, there would be a breakthrough. Would this love that Yahweh gives bring soft, cuddly feelings? Not always. Would you provide soft, cuddly feelings if you see your loved one about to enter harm's way, or would you bluntly run after them to stop them from causing seen and unseen danger from taking over their being?

Yahweh cares, and His way of caring is not always free from judgment, rebuke, correction, and realignment. Why does Yahweh do those "caring" actions? Yahweh's way draws us back into Kingdom alignment. Some of the stories I shared are over a decade old, yet the lessons learned can be noted for today, for demons continue to bring havoc to those who would not bend to Yahweh.
