

Susanna Seersgate

Yahweh said to be transparent and give the reasoning of who I am. Yahweh does not keep any part of my life private. When people engage me, they must have a heads up, knowing that Yahweh may use that engagement as a lesson shared with the world. The year of presentation is here.

Below, I include a screenshot of my DNA test. I am a blend of many racial backgrounds, but Yahweh gives me three main groups of focus: Scandinavian, Asian, and African. Why switch the order? I need to embrace all the parts not so visibly seen. And I share this with you so there can be an understanding of Yahweh's plan in using my heritage to build a bridge with all races. Take care.
