

THE BEGINNING NOTE

February 5, 2026

1:50 p.m.

YAHWEH SAYS IT:

You cannot make Me move faster. Crying will not make Me bend. The people view your work as fake, yet they still want more of it. But they won't acknowledge it. They want more. At the same time, they say, "What a phony. God doesn't talk like that." Servant. Servant. Servant. Don't hate Me. Yes, I took your natural dad because Satan took over his flesh, and I didn't want him to suffer any longer. Servant. Servant. Servant. I gave you certain symptoms to say that your mother had, and then I made her take on those symptoms in their fullest placement so that she would die quickly. That sounds heartless, doesn't it? But Yahweh plans. If I want, I can bring them both back. Why would I do this? Not for your sake, but for the sake of My great work. If I want, I can bring their ashes back together. If I wanted to. Crying to Yahweh does not sway Yahweh. Trying to make the people believe you will not make Yahweh move faster. Don't hate Me. Yahweh has trained you well. And I am done. The tester battle can begin.
