

WILL THERE BE A LITERAL RESURRECTION?

Yes, dear one, there will be a literal resurrection. God's Word speaks about this event.

First Thessalonians 4:13-18 NLT says,

(13) And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. (14) For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with Him the believers who have died. (15) We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet Him ahead of those who have died. (16) For the Lord Himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the believers who have died will rise from their graves. (17) Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. (18) So encourage each other with these words.

God's Word says that there will be a gathering of all of God's followers. And in this gathering, dead people will be raised to life. Was King Jesus raised fully, with a new body? Yes. Is that important that He was fully raised by the power of the Great Holy Spirit? It's very important. The resurrection of the dead is one of the most critical parts of the Christian faith. The power that carries this weight of surging cannot be duplicated in human striving.

No matter how much you want to raise a dead person, it will not happen just based on saying the name of Jesus. Let me explain this further: One time, while having a conversation with Yahweh, I was given a formula to heal others under the power of God. I used to think that all that had to be spoken was the name of Jesus to make things happen.

Then God showed me my error. I was using God's name as a weapon, but I was not using the weapon in the right timing nor under the covenant that is needed to have God push forth a will that would bring a very major shifting into natural details. I could say the name Jesus all day, but nothing will happen if I am moving on a fleshly motive without covenant backing in God I AM. (Remember the sons of Sceva, Acts 19.)

Why aren't the dead being raised this day? I learned in that conversation with God that I could not raise any without power, to have that level of healing and working of miracles take way. Not only that: I have to seek God and learn if He wants to bring back that person and have their spirit return to their body.

I cannot say the name of Jesus and expect there to be any moving of power when I have no relationship with God. Truly, I do know the Great Way, but you wouldn't have power just from knowing Him. God would not permit spiritual babies to walk in great power: That would cause their own destruction while hurting many people in the learning phase.

I have learned that I could have a relationship with the Great Way King Jesus yet still not be enabled to move in a level of surging power to raise the buried dead. Can you hear God tell you to pray a healing prayer? The vessel must yield and become a channel that will flow God's power into what plan needs it.

People must look at themselves as a pipe-shaped vessel. You will have to stay holy unto the Lord so that you will not give a tainted training into any situation. Will there be a raising of the dead, where they come out of the earth, through the ground, and join those living in a body? Will God ask you to pray for that dead person? That will all depend on God's plan.

Raising a dead person is very easy. I am not speaking from personal experience. I just heard God clearly say it truly is. But what is making the human doubt a literal raising? Could it be that no one is raising world awareness with a continual raising of dead people?

What if the news changed in presentation instead of always showing the death phase? What if God said it's now the season to raise dead people that have not been buried? Will you volunteer and go out there, bringing up awareness? What awareness will be made clear? That God is pushing His will into the earth to bring in a major soul harvest.

We can look at all of the world's denominations and structures of religion and see how confusing it is. How can Our God be the only power? It must be clearly seen in the created body. How can you say King Jesus created all that exists? Bible prophecies prove His being here on the earth, shedding His blood and being in a resurrected way, in a body. His believers shared this Good News even on pain of death.

To believe in this Great King is more than head knowledge; it's how a spiritual awareness takes over. Well, since there is a joining in the Body of the Great King upon salvation, why aren't all of God's followers on the same training, learning Kingdom power, and hearing God's will in all He will give? Their own spiritual way has to be clear of worldly details that would choke them and keep the Word from growing.

There must be a true communing with God. The power of God flows in His Church Body as a whole. There must be literal drinking in God's will, where you sit with the Great God Jehovah and learn to yield in doing the plan He would bring you.

There will be many challenges that will try to take you into other directions, but please stay with the Great Way in all things. Take those baby steps in faith. Learn to pray. Learn to hear Him. Learn to obey from your spirit. And as you yield in your spirit, there will be a closer walk with God, where you will taste a greater level of His presence.

And as time moves on, you will step out in faith to do what He wills. Then a prayer will seem easy when the focus is placed on the One (King Jesus) with great power, who will bring things forward with purpose.

The human is just the way God chooses to move in using, to flow His Kingdom plan through. God created all that is seen, just by saying it. And He made the man out of dirt and took the woman out of the man. We are all created in the image of God, yet we humans will never become a god, for there is only one God. You cannot be a human to then turn into a god of any level. Learn from Yahweh's written Word, staying close to the Great Teacher—the Great Holy Spirit.

This teaching ties in with how the dead will be raised. God will want a group of people who will take the Word and eat it up as spiritual strength to carry out what the Great Way King Jesus wills.

If you cannot fathom that God would save minorities or that God would have mercy on the sin-filled city that you live in, you may not be given a task that would bring glory into that needed territory. Have a new perspective: God can shift matter. Read about the various training details that King Jesus showed the disciples.

Greater things will be moved on. We are now shifting into how the Great Way preached the Kingdom in His ministry. Learn that what you can see in this natural realm has been created from the realm that is unseen. Start with that plan and grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, King Jesus.
