

THE GREAT FALLING AWAY

August 26, 2011

SUSANNA: Lord, I believe You are sharing something about the great falling away. Please share Your heart on that, Lord.

YAHWEH: Susanna, the message that you just received from Me speaks of that, how people cannot expect to live a life of sin and stand during this great spiritual war. Not only will it bring in a great harvest: Many will turn away from doing My will. They will go deeper into a life of sin and fall away, where they are no longer Mine. And this is important for all to understand.

When one accepts Jesus as Lord, this doesn't mean you never have to worry about being tempted or worry about sin. You still do because you live in a body of flesh that is still in its fallen will, where it has not been redeemed yet. You will not receive your body, your immortal tent, so to speak, until either you cross over in death, where you come home, or when I return for My Bride if you have not crossed over. Do you see? And this is why the mind has to be renewed in My Word by reading and meditating on it.

You know these things, but many do not. They are focused on grace and think they can continually do their own will and still receive forgiveness. If there is no true turning away from a life of sin, it is all for a show. There is no true transformation when someone is not truly coming to Me for forgiveness. This is where someone wants to do their own will Monday through Saturday, where they live in sin, and then they repent on Sunday morning out of guilt. There is no true turning away from sin.

It takes the power of the Living God to bring true healing and transformation, yet many are trying to earn their forgiveness or earn salvation. It is not possible. One cannot ever earn their salvation by doing works or rituals. It takes coming to Jesus, asking Him to forgive you of all sin, by His blood. And then it is truly a work of faith, where you choose to believe in the One the Father has sent. This is where one believes in the Son of God, Jesus. There is no other way.

But during this great movement, many will think they are connected to Jesus because they will sense His presence in a service and move in using His gifts that come from the Great Holy Spirit. They are deceived because only those who are connected to Jesus will receive eternal life. Only those who know Jesus through relationship will receive eternal life. And that eternal life begins upon receiving Jesus as Lord and Savior of one's own body, soul, and spirit. You cannot live in the ways of the world and serve Jesus. This is what many are doing. They profess to be Christians or followers of Christ when they do not truly belong to Him. They are deceiving themselves. They are living a lie. This is the way of many.

Some even were once close to Me, yet they continually choose to do things that displease Me. They think that because there is grace, they can continually do sinful deeds. This says to the world that there is no true transformation. Those so-called Christians are not truly Mine. And this great movement will cause many to have to choose a side—who they will serve throughout eternity. The difference is where the change will be obvious, where they will blatantly say they will have nothing to do with God, nor will they like what He has to say. They will desire to stay in their sinful deeds and live a life that is not pleasing to Me.

This is why I say salvation is a covenant. I cannot make someone stay connected to Me. I will keep those who are Mine so that they can handle any temptation, trial, pain, and so on. But ultimately, every man can choose who they will serve, and along with this choice as to who they will serve, they can also choose to leave, where they say they no longer want to be with Me.

This is the great falling away, where the love of many will grow cold. And this is why I say those who endure to the end will be saved. The love that once grew within those who are Mine—this is the love for Me, where they love Me above all others. This is the love that will grow cold, and the evidence of this love being cold is that they will no longer love their fellow men, nor will they love Me by doing My will. Those who love Me obey My will and do it, where they love Me by showing their love.

There are some who get to this place in Me where they can no longer return to a life of sin and receive forgiveness once they return. This is called being dead in sin, where you die twice. It is also known as "twice dead" in Scripture. This is where a seasoned, mature follower of Christ, who has been filled with My Spirit, tastes of Me in deep spiritual realms, tastes of My great power, tastes of Heaven, where they are so close to Me. This is concerning this person mentioned. For if they receive of Me in such a manner, and they choose to turn back to living a life of sin, they will not receive forgiveness. This is a permanent turning away, where they will not be forgiven.

You know of this because this is where you are in Me. You are a seasoned believer of Jesus. You have tasted the things of Heaven. We are so close in the supernatural realm, and soon you will experience so much more in Me when you are filled with My great power, nature, and glory. If you turn away from Me at this point in your will, you will not be able to receive forgiveness for leaving Me. This is scriptural, but many do not realize that there is a point in a relationship where we can get so close, and if you choose to leave Me, you will die twice. Now some say, "How can you die twice when you never died yet in the physical realm?" This way of death that I am referring to is a supernatural death, where it is done in the spirit realm.

Before one accepts Jesus as Lord and Savior, you are already dead. Your "spirit man" is dead, and the only way it becomes alive is upon spiritual birth when you receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior. To die twice is to turn away from Him and go back to a life of sin after you have reached a deep level in Christ. This is not for new believers, as you know, because there once was a time where you served Me but then went back into the world.

You left Me when you were a baby in Christ, and you were not sure which way you wanted to go. But now that you have reached this place in Me where you have received so much of Me, of My nature, presence within yourself, you must be careful and consider your will very carefully. You must continually do My will and never return to a life of sin. You must endure to the end. For he who endures to the end, they shall be saved. Yes, Susanna, the love of many will grow cold, and only those who endure shall be saved. This is true. This is My will because this is written in My Word.

YAHWEH (cont.): You know what I want you to do when you have time today. Send this out along with the message to those in the “family.”

SUSANNA: Yes, Lord.

YAHWEH: It is important that all know once saved is not always saved.

SEERSGATE: Yahweh asked me to give a few Scripture references. Here they are:

(11) Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, and for pay they have given themselves up to the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah. (12) These are the ones who are hidden reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you without fear, like shepherds caring only for themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, doubly dead, uprooted; (13) wild waves of the sea, churning up their own shameful deeds like dirty foam; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved forever.

—Jude 1:11-13 NASB

(4) For it is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened and have tasted of the heavenly gift and have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit, (5) and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, (6) and then have fallen away, to restore them again to repentance, since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God and put Him to open shame. (7) For ground that drinks the rain which often falls on it and produces vegetation useful to those for whose sake it is also tilled, receives a blessing from God; (8) but if it yields thorns and thistles, it is worthless and close to being cursed, and it ends up being burned.

—Hebrews 6:4-8 NASB

(Read the entire chapter for a full understanding.)

(17) These are springs without water and mists driven by a storm, for whom the black darkness has been reserved. (18) For, while speaking out arrogant words of no value they entice by fleshly desires, by indecent behavior, those who barely escape from the ones who live in error, (19) promising them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by what anyone is overcome, by this he is enslaved. (20) For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world by the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and are overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. (21) For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn away from the holy commandment handed on to them. (22) It has happened to them according to the true proverb, "A DOG RETURNS TO ITS OWN VOMIT," and, "A sow, after washing, returns to wallowing in the mire."

—2 Peter 2:17-22 NASB

(1) It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery.

(2) Look! I, Paul, tell you that if you have yourselves circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you. (3) And I testify again to every man who has himself circumcised, that he is obligated to keep the whole Law. (4) You have been severed from Christ, you who are seeking to be justified by the Law; you have fallen from grace. (5) For we, through the Spirit, by faith, are waiting for the hope of righteousness. (6) For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but faith working through love.

—Galatians 5:1-6 NASB
