

A STORY OF DELIVERING WAYS

Yahweh Encourages through a Servant's Sharing of Having Demons Expelled as a Christian

April 7, 2023

3:15 p.m.

YAHWEH:

Seersgate, decades have gone by; still, you remember when Yahweh dealt with you in direct ways.

SEERSGATE:

How do I say this, Yahweh? Before having the demons expelled, I did not have a moment to fix my hair or keep a presentation that would make me look presentable.

YAHWEH:

I know you would not let Me deal with you in a church gathering if We gave you a leading to let you know what was ahead. Would you have gone if I told you I would make you scream to your highest at the altar of a large church in the church service? And that is why many people cannot embrace the idea that a person would go to church and let a demon act up, manifest, or be expelled. Some say, "Why would a demon go to church without objecting, to later act up when in front of the person praying?" You know that many churchgoers are not actually going to Heaven. They are the ones who have a form of godliness but deny the power of God.

YAHWEH CONTINUES:

Look at that person who judges a Christian who may struggle with past old addictions and have a talk. After the shed blood of King Jesus, were the curses of Genesis mentioned in the Garden of Eden dissolved or eradicated instantly? Can Christians still enter death? Can a Christian woman have painful childbirth? Are men still toiling in some form for food? Of course, those curses are taking over the human even though there is a New Covenant in place, and no one is under the Law in the plan of Christian actions. Grace now has a dominant leading, and there is a Kingdom plan, yet the ways of curses are still leading over plans. Look at how Christians are getting old. That plan of getting old and dying is an actual curse, and no Christian has an exemption unless Yahweh slows down what is leading and brings an overruling to the natural plan.

YAHWEH STILL LEADS IT:

There are curses that still take over the Christian, and the curses Yahweh spoke over Adam and Eve in this context, are still bringing heavy influence over those who come into the earth. A major death plan from what Adam and Eve did in their rebellion leads over all who come into natural living. All have sinned, and all fall short of the glory of God. And that plan of being birthed forth in sin stems from the garden of Eden. Think carefully. With these curses still having a leading over the Christian, could others have leading ways to bind a Christian? Is the power of the blood from King Jesus too weak to make you stop getting older and dying? Of course not! Is the blood from the Great Way King Jesus too weak to make you stop having painful childbirth? Of course not!

YAHWEH YIELDS IT:

So, what plan is very clear? The fallen world is still a leading plan in the Christian, and there is no way of full eradication of the cursed placement until there is a new way. Even in the thousand-year reign of Christ on this current Earth, sin is present, and a great crowd will come against Yahweh in the final battle faceoff. See it? The power of the Great

Holy Spirit is the greatest power, yet there are standing curses that the blood of King Jesus will fully deal with at the very end. Find Me that Scripture.

(20) But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. (21) For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. (22) For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. (23) But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at His coming those who belong to Christ. (24) Then comes the end, when He delivers the Kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. (25) For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet. (26) The last enemy to be destroyed is death. (27) For "God has put all things in subjection under His feet." But when it says, "all things are put in subjection," it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under Him. (28) When all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subjected to Him who put all things in subjection under Him, that God may be all in all.

—1 Corinthians 15:20-28 ESV

YAHWEH IS LEADING:

And when will Death be destroyed?

(11) Then I saw a great white throne and Him who was seated on it. The earth and the heavens fled from His presence, and there was no place for them. (12) And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books. (13) The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what they had done. (14) Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death. (15) Anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 20:11-15 NIV

YAHWEH IS LEADING:

Now, this is going to scare people: If “death” is a spoken curse, would I throw My words into the lake of fire? What good would that do to torment only words that I spoke? Think carefully. And that is when the old way is fully removed when the governing spirit known as Death is thrown into the lake of fire.

SEERSGATE:

A closing off of all curses. And for the ones who cannot see King Jesus as the LORD, why would the Apostle label King Jesus as the source of our resurrection hope and even state Him as the Lord? (1 Corinthians 15:20-22, 31).

YAHWEH IS LEADING:

Who has all power?

(15) The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. (16) For in Him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through Him and for Him. (17) He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. (18) And He is the head of the Body, the Church; He is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything He might have the supremacy. (19) For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him, (20) and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through His blood, shed on the cross.

(21) Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. (22) But now He has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in His sight, without blemish and free from accusation— (23) if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

Colossians 1:15-23 NIV

(16) Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. (17) And when they saw Him they worshiped Him, but some doubted. (18) And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. (19) Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, (20) teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

—Matthew 28:16-20 ESV

SEERSGATE IS SPEAKING:

King Jesus is God I AM, as stated in John 8. How can King Jesus be only a man if He said that statement, which is clearly there: "I will be with you always, to the end of the age." And when the end comes, King Jesus hands the Kingdom over to His Father. King Jesus is not a regular man like mortal living men. No mortal can endure throughout the ages, take on full power, create everything, then judge all, and open the seals in the Book of Revelation.

(48) The Jews answered Him, "Are we not right in saying that You are a Samaritan and have a demon?" (49) Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. (50) Yet I do not seek My own glory; there is One who seeks it, and He is the Judge. (51) Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps My word, he will never see death." (52) The Jews said to Him, "Now we know that You have a demon! Abraham died, as did the prophets, yet You say, 'If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste death.'" (53) Are You greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do You make Yourself out to be?" (54) Jesus answered, "If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say, 'He is our God.'" (55) But you have not known Him. I know Him. If I were to say that I do not know Him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know Him and I keep His word. (56) Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see My day. He saw it and was glad." (57) So the Jews said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?" (58) Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I Am." (59) So they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple.

John 8:48-59 ESV

YAHWEH IS LEADING:

Does any of this tie in with how you were dealing with being delivered? Oh, very much so. They say what My Scripture says about how I am greater than the one who is in the world, yet curses and natural death still rule. Why is that? The final manifold plan must be unfolded, consuming how the current world is governed. That's why the people still deal with natural death, curses, painful living, and natural flesh. But that does not state you are not in Yahweh's house based on having natural death still lead over your well-being. I am the Resurrection and the Life. There is a fulfillment that will overtake all former ways. That is when I will place forward a new heaven and a new Earth. Now, share your heart about what happened those two decades over.

SEERSGATE SHARES HER WAY OF LOOKING AT THE DAY DEALT WITH:

I went to church, wanting to gain a closer way to Yahweh. I tried to avoid going there and yield attention to what I had within. I did not feel the demons moving around within me, but I knew that there were great ways of influences that would shape how I dealt with daily living.

I had recently returned to rightful ways of obedient living in King Jesus just within that same season. I already repented. I already turned away from the sinful way of selling my way through sexual sinful lusting and the ways of taking in all forms of abuse. I tasted all that the world could offer short of fame and fortune, but I met enough wealthy and famous men and women who had wounded ways, and yet, they could not find peace either. I saw that money would not bring happiness, and I realized that chasing the dollar and having money be my end wouldn't fill me.

My way of "happiness" was falling apart, coming to an end through broken promises. And I saw a billboard on a local road in the local area.

"A church called home."

For me, that is what I craved, a place where I could be cuddled, kept warm, and safe from all the predators I met within and in my daily living. A church called home: would they let me in? And see, I now understand why the church gathering must be separate and not give the wounded what they are getting in the world. I didn't want to attend a church that gave me what I already lived in. I needed faithful men who didn't want me to have sexual favors in my demeanor. I needed seasoned women to wrap their arms around me and not call me harsh names.

I returned to the church way, filled with many demons, wearing what isn't really modest apparel: a mini-skirt and six-inch stilettos. The people did not ostracize me. I met women and men who hugged me and smiled, welcoming me to their church home. I sat near the back of the large building, yet a head pastor told a woman to find me after the service and bring me into the fold. I hid away, but Yahweh has ways of bringing you forward to others.

Some of my thoughts were: What if I first went to this gathering to see if they would welcome me, but then they didn't? What if they turned their noses up at me when I entered? And would I stay? What if they complained about the way I looked on my first visit? What if they were acting as I did in the nightclub? And if they did, would I feel they could offer me anything?

YAHWEH IS LEADING:

Seersgate, no church could offer you anything. The church building is not what you were craving. You craved to meet Me. And the church way gives what is represented as a power touch, a little taste of what stems from the Vine. Representatives of the Kingdom should give the wounded people a taste of that surging out into all who visit, along with those who make it their church home. When you visit a food franchise location, you notice the building's decorations, building logo or sign, team workers; and what is shown on the menu ties in with what they offer in other locations. Store A in one part of town is similar to store B in another part of town within the same franchise.

And My gatherings should all have the same way of presentation of King Jesus, where when a person enters, they can tell that that gathering is a part of the Kingdom. Now continue.

SEERSGATE CONTINUES:

And I repented of my sinful living. And I attended church. And not too much later, the demons still needed to be dealt with. But I did not know it. I went to church during a regular service. I made some friends, so it was now a familiar environment. I do not remember the message preached, but there became a moment to yield within and take a moment to be with Yahweh at the church altar near the pulpit.

I went, and I kneeled there. My friend came, and we were next to each other. I remember lying down on my side and out was the loudest yelling. Consider attending your proper church service and barely hearing a snuffle from the audience when the groups are gathered. But then, what if Yahweh has you delivered in that quiet environment? Would you try to stop Him?

Here is the difference between my screaming in yelling at the highest I could: I did not have the ability to stop screaming. Yahweh literally expelled a great hoard of demons by His power. No minister interviewed a demon. No preacher stood over me, telling the demons to come out. I literally prayed to Yahweh for a touch from Him, and He took over the spiritual plan, putting me in a place that expelled all the demons. But I was already a Kingdom citizen. Yahweh was beginning to turn me. I craved a power relationship with Him. I wanted to serve King Jesus. But I did not think a hoard of demons was still dwelling in me as a way of staying.

How could a Christian have a demon? I am living a daily testimony of what could happen. They say a demon would not sit quietly in church, but they do not understand that the building is not the power source, but Yahweh's Kingdom citizens carry the power. Yahweh dealt with the demons when the moment came. And I yielded to Yahweh. And Yahweh expelled them.

My friend tried to hold me while I yelled and screamed, a heavy turning away of the final residue of a sinful way.

YAHWEH IS SAYING IT:

I expelled a great hoard. I did not let them dwell within for longer, for the demons were a hindering way. But the demons did not make you stay a sinner. That is a plan to be able to defend when a way is given. And I will make it clearly a way that will prove what I give you is standing, for a continual removing of old ways must have a leading placement, a daily yielding of healing, delivering, and natural bread.
