SUSANNA SEERSGATE SHARES HER WAY OF DEALING WITH THE WAYS OF THE CHURCH:

Yahweh had me view a show that deals with a medium. He's a very famous medium, and if I mentioned his name, some of you may seek him out and use him. I learned why people go and visit others who deal with spirit beings from demon-based outlets: the medium's accurate sayings of what a dead friend or loved one dealt with tend to sway the hearer and have them embrace what they hear as a real form of communion with a dead way.

But how can it not be clearly stated that mediums use demons called "familiar spirits" to learn about what happened in the dead person's way?

A TYPICAL MEDIUM SESSION

Here is the first step: The medium says, "Let's get an object or be in a place that the dead person would have familiarity with."

Next, the medium says, "Let me doodle on some paper and center myself and connect with the voices."

Then the medium states phrases similar to: "Is this name familiar:____?" "They are showing me a certain place:_____." "The 'dead person' is bringing up this event:_____ "I hear this sound/these letters:____; does that sound familiar to you?" "Does any of that make sense?"

And then the grieving person gets a hopeful look and says, "Oh, there is no way you could have known that!" "I was a skeptic, but you are the real way." "I know you are talking with my dead friend (family member, acquaintance, etc.). "There is no way. Oh, wow." And then this medium would say something like, "They (the dead person) want you to know that they are okay. They do not blame you for what happened. You can have peace. I want you to know they will always be with you, watching over your way as you live."

How would that work for a dead husband or wife? Would you want them "watching over you" while with your current husband or wife? Odd. But we know that the dead are either in Heaven or in the Hell, known as Sheol.

While at home, the medium later says to his mother, "I was creeped out when a dark shadow came into my room on the 11th floor. I felt the room get cold. I said hello and hid under the covers. I was off the clock..." That's a paraphrased version of how a tormented medium behaves. Satan will torment his own workers. What is sad about this young man is that he thinks he is actually helping to heal people.

Here is a view of how the Church's prophetic outlets are operating: The person says they "felt" that God said this, or they "feel that they should say" this or that. They say they are prophets when they only operate in the gift of prophecy. They label themselves prophetic when drinking from the anointing in a room filled with believers.

How can a medium operate through the use of demons who parade around pretending to be a dead relative and receive the demon's bite-size information to trick the person getting the reading? Yet the Church is out of order, letting everyone and anyone who "feels" something or "had a vision or dream" come up to the platform and give their little words they have no business sharing. There is chaos in the churches, and now self-labeled "prophets" and "apostles" and regular lay members are going to those same demons that the medium uses to gather their information!

I heard a man who counsels presidents over nations tell a woman what she had in her house as if that were a big revelation. And that woman started screaming and saying that that man had to be a man of God because he could tell her what was in her house. Pay close attention! That is a demon-based work that gets details from a demon to learn about that person. That person does not operate in the gift of prophecy from the Great Holy Spirit.

My, my. Where has the Church fallen down into? Which pit in Hell are the majority of so-called Christians headed to? On these special days when Christians celebrate Christ, Satan's workers are busy learning ways to infiltrate.

Yahweh delivers me often from demon engagement. I learn of the spirit realm through experiential training with a free-will approach. And there are some shows that Yahweh sends an angel to warn me never to look at, for they bring heavy demonic oppression.

One of those demon-based shows is called _____. At first, it starts as a hero crime-fighting show. Over time, the show slowly injects traits of the nature of Pure Evil (a demon prince), and then they include occultic actions that have to be performed by the TV character. While viewing the show, my room's environment changes, and the nature presented or honored in the TV show will fill up my surroundings with whatever spirit is attached to the show.

Sex sells in Hollywood and around the world, dulling the spiritual senses. That is why many programs start with sex scenes or nudity to gain your attention. Do not be put in that position to think that there will not be a residue in your home or on your person when you watch Satan-based shows. Note that seeing a woman's breasts at the beginning of a program will automatically open your "eye" gates and permit demons to enter at will, no matter your beliefs. Seeing women's breasts in a movie or on film skips all the demonic steps of a slow progression of demon fillings and will take you straight to a home run to dealing with oppressive demonic ways.

I have learned a great deal from Yahweh's training plan, but now the time has come to give these notes out into the world. Even though I have free will and my children are adults, based on how I serve Yahweh and observe spiritual laws, I cannot willingly let myself view everything and anything. I cannot go unguarded into any situation, demanding Yahweh to back me up with protection and power.

Samson, from Scripture, got into trouble using that same expectation, thinking he could break every vow he had with Yahweh and maintain a covenant of safety, strength, and power. Yet Yahweh yielded to what Samson wanted: a break in the covenant. Why should we think we can give Yahweh orders to keep us safe when we willingly choose to surrender our bodies (The body is a temple of the Great Holy Spirit.) over to Satan for his use?

Come out of hiding, Church. Don't fear talking about the problems going on in church gatherings. Let us talk about why there is no power in the Church. Let's talk about how the Church behaves as if in the times of the judges when everyone is doing what they think is right in their own eyes.

I am not a prosperity speaker. I am not a "name it and claim it" preacher. I will not tell you to declare whatever you want and think God Yahweh is your genie to grant you your wish. I trained for thirty years with Yahweh as a novice prophet. From my teen years, He spoke and gave experiential training to face real-life spirit engagement. But yet, there will be another ten years learning this mantle, for the work is heavy.

But I want to share with you that God knows of all that happens and yet gives humans free will to make choices. We still need to choose death or life. As Christians, we still have security in Christ, but Yahweh will not force anyone to stay in the salvation covenant with Him. Yes, He can keep you safe in His will and mighty hand, but will He make you stay in His Kingdom when you are longing to return to serving Satan?

It is time to stop wondering what idea to stand with. Do you believe what you state?
