

MATERIAL TRANSFER

Most will not be very sure of the details revealed in this teaching, but this is what the Great Holy Spirit has given me to bring to the people. Most would say there is no way that the unseen can come and take on a different nature. They would say that this is not possible, yet there have been noted in Scripture these details in more than one place.

First, let's speak of Abraham and his guests that made themselves visible to him and Sarah at the meeting place of their way near the land where the nephew Lot had his place in Sodom. Now Abraham was not in Sodom, but he was surely close to see it from a distance. This day that I speak concerning was like any other to Abraham and his barren wife. They waited for the promise of the Great I AM to come and be revealed. They were both advanced in age; Sarah was past the time given for a woman to bear children. This promised child was becoming a distant thought with Sarah, and the moving to bring this detail into the natural was what she needed to witness at her tent where the heavenly visitors came to greet them.

(1) Now the Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, while he was sitting at the tent door in the heat of the day. (2) When he raised his eyes and looked, behold, three men were standing opposite him; and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed down to the ground, (3) and said, "My Lord, if now I have found favor in Your sight, please do not pass Your servant by. (4) Please let a little water be brought and wash your feet, and make yourselves comfortable under the tree; (5) and I will bring a piece of bread, so that you may refresh yourselves; after that you may go on, since you have visited your servant." And they said, "So do as you have said." (6) So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Quickly, prepare three measures of fine flour, knead it, and make bread cakes." (7) Abraham also ran to the herd, and took a tender and choice calf and gave it to the servant, and he hurried to prepare it. (8) He took curds and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them; and he was standing by them under the tree as they ate.

(9) Then they said to him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" And he said, "There, in the tent." (10) He said, "I will certainly return to you at this time next year; and behold, your wife Sarah will have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent door, which was behind him. (11) Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; Sarah was past childbearing. (12) So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I have become old, am I to have pleasure, my lord being old also?" (13) But the Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Shall I actually give birth to a child, when I am so old?' (14) Is anything too difficult for the Lord? At the appointed time I will return to you, at this time next year, and Sarah will have a son." (15) Sarah denied it, however, saying, "I did not laugh"; for she was afraid. And He said, "No, but you did laugh."

—Genesis 18:1-15 NASB

This couple received a visit from the Great King and two angels. They would not have known it was not a human there with them unless the Great King spoke and gave them the way to see this detail move into position. Materialization is a material transfer, where a spirit from the unseen way takes on the shape of the natural, where they appear in human form. They were able to eat. They wore clothing that was visible in natural surroundings. They ate in a plan where they were there in the house of the people who were serving the Great God Yahweh.

The visit was a special invitation from the Great God, and they could see Yahweh moving in the plan planted deep within. Their promise was a seed placed within that was moving to complete its purpose: to bring forth the Great King's very promise given within their spirit for the drinking.

This story is like any other vision given by the Great King. He would speak His will to embrace, and it goes deep within you for a period of growth into the position it needs to be in to come forth. All that the Great King gives would need an incubation period before the plan comes forward into natural living. Nothing happens just to happen on Yahweh's calendar. He moves to bring His will from the unseen way to the way that is visible in the natural. And that is a timing set in place that comes from the Great King.

Even the birth of King Jesus was spoken of by the servants of the Great Moving known as the Great I AM, and they could not come to fullness until the appointed time was in place. Don't think that the Great King is slow in bringing a will that He has given you to be seen, where you see it move to manifestation. God is a Planner, and He is watching for His Word to come forth, but it must be His way.

A servant of Yahweh must say what Yahweh gives without adding human ways of understanding and gauging. Interpretation of the layout of events comes from the Great Holy Spirit. If the Great King gives a specific plan, that person must stand firm on what Yahweh says. God has a way to speak His will in a way that you must see: He can re-will, rewrite, remove, re-shift, cut off, hold, postpone, or move His will to another for the covenant to stay in effect with a group that will keep His way with Him.

What the Great King had with Abraham was a legal contract referred to as a covenant. But this was no ordinary covenant; it was a spiritual tie that would bring Abraham the benefits, protection, the well-being of the One True Moving known as the Great God Yahweh.

God had a plan to bring the people to Himself through Abraham. This covenant is revealed in the earth within those who take the Great King as Lord and Savior. The covenant continues, and this plan had to be in place. And this is why the visit was so important. Look at the children that came from Abraham. Look with spiritual vision with the help of the Great Holy Spirit.

Now, what else can we note concerning material transfers? We know that Lot and his family were visited by angels the evening they were in danger of dealing with being there when the city would be destroyed by the Great God King Jesus, as given for the angels to handle. Those who spoke in the city that night could not tell they were talking with angels. They thought that they were just men who were new there.

(1) Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening as Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he stood up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground. (2) And he said, "Now behold, my lords, please turn aside into your servant's house, and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way." They said, "No, but we shall spend the night in the public square." (3) Yet he strongly urged them, so they turned aside to him and entered his house; and he prepared a feast for them and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. (4) Before they lay down, the men of the city—the men of Sodom—surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter; (5) and they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may have relations with them." (6) But Lot went out to them at the doorway, and shut the door behind him, (7) and said, "Please, my brothers, do not act wickedly. (8) Now look, I have two daughters who have not had relations with any man; please let me bring them out to you, and do to them whatever you like; only do not do anything to these men, because they have come under the shelter of my roof." (9) But they said, "Get out of the way!" They also said, "This one came in as a foreigner, and already he is acting like a judge; now we will treat you worse than them!" So they pressed hard against Lot and moved forward to break the door. (10) But the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them, and shut the door. (11) Then they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, from the small to the great, so that they became weary of trying to find the doorway.

Now, this should make it clear that even the most sinful person would be able to see an angel. God is just in how He deals with sin and those who move upon the earth. There is no leniency in God where He would say, “It is under the blood,” just to say sin is okay to continue doing. Grace is not an excuse to keep sinning. The power of God overpowers any sin. No sin should keep you in any form of addiction or bondage. If there is bondage, pain, or addiction, King Jesus can heal, deliver, and set us free.

Now, see who is the master of all three—body, soul, and spirit. For you may give your soul to the Great King, and His Spirit may dwell in your spirit, but what has a territorial right to your body? The enemy pursues his quest to deceive people into thinking that the Great I AM would not have the power and authority to bring deliverance today. Now, you can pray to the same God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, now called Israel.

King Jesus is here, and He keeps His covenant with Abraham this day. For the Great I AM is not the God of the dead but of the living. He has His angels standing their posts throughout the earth, bringing His will to pass. His angels are on a mission, and that mission is whatever the Great King would plan to have synced with the people on Earth.

The people should not look for a moving of material transfer to believe in what the Scriptures say concerning this. Know that the Great King moves in His way to show you that He is truly moving. Now, what will you drink concerning this detail? Will you seek the wisdom of the Great King concerning what will move into the natural for you to see His way against you or for you?

Make a decision where you look to move into a salvation covenant, where you give yourself to the Great King. Make Him your Lord and Savior, where you move and choose His way over your way. Both will line up when you choose to walk with the Great King, doing the will He would bring in a soul and heart that has given complete allegiance over to the One True God.

You have angels moving in the place you stand; they minister in the way of those who will inherit eternal life. You may need them to assist you with various details. You would also need to drink the Great Holy Spirit's will to know what plan they would move in to assist you. The angels will only do the plan given from a will spoken by the Great King Jesus.

Get yourself positioned to move into the Kingdom way of living—not just in the words you speak, but also how you live and operate in two worlds this day. The natural and spiritual ways are here. It is for you to move into living with the authority given to you as a Kingdom citizen implemented to wage war effectively against Satan and his demon hoard.

Don't move to ignore the unseen way. Learn from the ministry that King Jesus had while He was here on Earth: Kingdom work. For the Kingdom is within you. Do your work using the Kingdom tools given to you by the Great King. Go with the Helper, the Great Holy Spirit.

Until our next discussion concerning material transfer, know that you will never receive a will (plan) to drink from the Great King if He is not going to prepare you to do the will. Stay with the Great King Jesus and listen to the Great Holy Spirit in all things. Amen.
