

HE CHOSE A WHITE WOMAN

April 26, 2024

4:22 p.m.

YAHWEH IS SAYING IT:

You are a woman of multiple races. You show no ill will in stating Yahweh's placement. She wanted to take on a career in acting and music, but look what took way: great deception. And now she carries great demons from the warlock in Africa. She placed that warlock over Yahweh. She made him her lowercase god. Tell them, servant, why Geor chose a white woman: she would be more appealing to the masses than a woman of minority-based dealing. They know how the Western world works: they look at the exterior and gauge a person's worth based on skin color. Geor chose a white woman to make her more appealing to embrace.

Let's put you up there, servant. Your presentation is Hispanic or Puerto Rican or a more ethnic placing. You are obviously multi-racial, but the public who places all minorities in one group would not accept you due to your pigmentation. No one would say it—that they are prejudiced. But every race has a group of prejudiced ways. So, Satan chose a woman that would be more pleasing to view and more acceptable to the Western world.

But here is what I will do: I will bring forward a world-level prophet of multiple races who will build bridges with the races due to how Yahweh actually flows through her. And I will expose this new way of Kathryn as a false movement. I already mentioned that she carries a great demon. This demon presents itself in kind words, a smile, and a gentle tone. "Listen to me. I can help you. All you need is to come to me." She follows her master, Satan, who operates through her spiritual daddy, whom she claims she yields to. "Go back to acting" is what I would tell her—not to be mean but to save her soul.
