

WHAT DOES SATAN LOOK LIKE?

ENTRY NOTE

SEERSGATE IS LEADING:

Yahweh asked me to give an entry note. What Yahweh refers to as the way Satan looks not only provides insight into his shape, shade of color, or if he has arms or legs; rather, the way Satan looks also encompasses how he carries himself, his nature, and how Satan should be perceived. How Satan looks deals with Satan's full presentation and the visage or coverings (false representations) he uses to trick people.

If you talk about Satan, you will not become demon-possessed. Learning how to wage war against the enemy of Yahweh is good. Satan uses other outlets and his workers to take in an understanding of your way. Just as Yahweh's angels can materialize and appear human in presentation, Satan can also do this, where you don't realize you are engaging Satan, a spirit being. Satan's authentic way is still a spirit being, but he is not the beautiful angel he once was, yet Satan can give that perception (false presentation) as if he still is.

Satan can materialize and take on a human look. Satan can present himself with a false visage as a very handsome man or angel. Satan is actually brownish gray, not red. He has no hair on his head in his fallen state. Satan has delegated power as great as an archangel yet lowered by Yahweh in strength and governing due to the fall from his original placement.

YAHWEH IS LEADING:

Does anyone know what Satan looks like? I'm addressing humans, for demons were not always that way in presentation. Doesn't anybody know? Well, Satan doesn't have a long red tail, nor does he carry around a pitchfork. What else is inaccurate about Satan? It's misleading to think that Satan knows everything and that he can be everywhere all at once.

Satan is a created being, a lowercase god that once had archangel traits in their fullest placement. And yet, some of these traits are evident in how Satan deals with humans and how all the other demons submit to him. Demons do not fight against each other; they know their time is short. They war against humans because they hate Yahweh and would hate what Yahweh created. Demons hate humans and want to see all humans end up with the ending prepared for Satan and the other fallen angels.

You cannot negotiate with Satan and expect to win if you're using your human reasoning. If Satan has promised you that you will rule and reign with him, he has greatly deceived you. Satan will not share his kingdom with any human. And Satan even states to some of his workers (witches, warlocks, and brides) that if they do significant damage in the spirit realm and cause many to turn against Yahweh in how they live, they, these workers of Satan, would then have granted governing authority in eternity with Satan. But that is not true, for even Satan will be thrown into the lake of fire.

Who can rescue a person who has turned to Satan for their redemption? Master Deceiver, a high-ranking demon, has a hand in bringing a great crowd to join Satan in a covenant. Some say they sold their souls to Satan for riches and fame. But can you really sell your soul? In reality, those in a sinful state already operate in Satan's nature and kingdom, moving to be under a permanent curse of eternal separation from My Kingdom.

To "sell your soul" to some would be to pay homage and allegiance in spiritual chains of servitude. A form of covenant makes it where Satan says, "I will give you the world if you say and do what I will." And that means that if Satan says to offer him others through a blood sacrifice, it must be carried out. Because Satan not only threatens the worker's natural life but those they love and want to have kept safe.

THE LOOKS OF SATAN

Satan looks like a human when he chooses to change his presentation. He can materialize at will. He can also have intercourse with humans. Satan can come and present himself with two arms and two legs. But his actual shade of coloring is brownish gray, a dead presentation, with no light coming through him.

Satan will also present himself as a very handsome man who comes to women in the evening to trick them into having intercourse, thinking they have the man of their dreams. And some would think that the act of intercourse with Satan was a dream, not knowing that he infiltrated and gave a rite of passage for a "strong man" governing within. Satan will also forcefully rape women while their husbands, under occultic practices, are under an order to watch. Satan will never be purposely nice to you. Satan pretends to care about you so he can use you, and he will never be your friend.

When meeting with Satan, when he meets with you and chooses not to have you deal with him directly, he is making it plain that your governing authority is not up to par. He doesn't think you deserve his attention and would have you deal with one of his spirit helpers (a lower demon) instead of talking directly to him. The lower demon would be like a mediator. Sometimes, Satan will send a witch or warlock to spirit travel and spy to gain information for Satan's workers.

One day, Satan will bring you demons that will proposition you so they can come and enter you in exchange for fame or a display of power. This demonic indwelling is why a great deal would say they are damned to the pits of the Hell because they let a demon enter at will. The demon would say, "Don't you want that money?" "Don't you want to be great?" And more taunting. Some demons would come and present themselves like gentle creatures similar to your favorite pet or bug. Demons taking on the presentation of stuffed animals and cute critters make people think demons will be loving and can be their friend someday. That is very dangerous thinking. Satan will always be the enemy of the ones who belong to Yahweh.

Suppose you have viewed a very evil movie with a lot of violence: that movie will barely give a taste of Satan's actual nature. Even the vilest, cynical, torturous, and degrading movie will not accurately represent how Satan and the other demons operate. Even the most occultic film with demons giving manifestation will only produce a little taste.

Do not engage any demon by moving to go seeking after them. Certain movies and music conjure up demons, bringing a way to initiate a form of engagement. Some movies actually have rituals, and without your understanding of what those rituals produce in the spirit realm, you unknowingly state that through your outlet of entertainment, you are willing to let whatever demon is leading in governing rights come and take a leading nature within you. A movie by itself is not horrible in nature, but the root way, whatever nature is backed up or presented in that movie, takes the form of an influencer over the viewer.

Satan has delegated governing yet is still carrying great power surgings. No human has the power to bind Satan, nor would putting Satan "under your feet" be available in the power placement. You must come to Yahweh, submitting to Me. And then you would be able to have a chance to wage war against a powerful spirit. The best course of action for the Christian is to put on the whole armor of Yahweh and pray to Me for your daily delivering way.

Satan doesn't have a human nature, for he is not an actual human. Satan will steal from you and strip away your covenant with Yahweh if you allow him. You allow Satan to have territorial governing over your dirt clay (human body) when you approve of his nature to lead in daily living. You are saying you take "Satan's way" without actually saying the name "Satan" when viewing spiritual filth or any nature trait contrary to the nature of Yahweh. Now you speak, Seersgate.

SEERSGATE IS LEADING:

I visited with Satan on many opportunities when Yahweh granted it. On a few occasions, I dealt with spiritual and physical abuse, being under torment for moments when I watched spiritual filth that included a conjuring of demons given in my entertaining the viewing of the nature of the demon named Set (Seth). Yahweh told me there had to be a following through of judgments when I drank Satan's way. I have seen Satan in my prophet seer trait as if I saw him in a flashback; a vision of him came before my seer way.

This misunderstanding of Satan based on what the entertainment world offers is where a great deception comes in: people will think Satan will play with them and share his kingdom. I have heard Satan speak in diplomatic ways, not with the scary view that horror movies present. But even though Satan gave diplomatic sayings, there was no joy in dealing with him.

But the profane level of evil that the demon named Pure Evil would give is fueled by Satan. The vilest stripping away of human flesh is an easy form of torment from Pure Evil, the demon that carries the literal opposite nature of the Great Holy Spirit. Satan gives governing surgings into his demons; that's the level of power surging granted to a lowered archangel. Murder, another demon, accompanies Pure Evil. One brings natural death, and the other carries out stages of torment or physical torture before ending the person's life.

I have seen Satan appear as an angel. He looked beautiful and glowed with a typical angel presentation, but when he came closer, he showed his true way, with pupils being snake-looking. Satan appeared like one of Yahweh's angels from Heaven, not a fallen spirit. And if Yahweh did not state it was Satan, I would wonder about such a beautiful creature in presentation. But the telling tale was Satan's eyes, filled with evil. No demon gives love and peace in their visage, even when they appear in a regular angel presentation. I see Satan only when Yahweh brings him to deal with the message given or when Satan plans to listen in on a private meeting.

Yahweh has unmeasurable power, a power level greater than any demon. Satan will one day be thrown into the lake of fire and will forever be under great torment, and Yahweh will view it.
