

HE SHED HIS BLOOD

YAHWEH IS SPEAKING:

What did Jesus do when He died? What did Jesus do when He died and rose from the dead? Have you thought about it? Jesus came to shed His blood.

SUSANNA GIVES HER THOUGHTS:

Where did Death gain a territorial right over Yahweh's creation? Who spoke the curse? It was Yahweh. So, with having a great way to bring a curse of natural separation from the living plan, would it be difficult for Yahweh's spoken word to erase the death grip and replace this plan of being dead? If Yahweh says we must all die and be under a curse that Death is given territorial ways to place against us, can it happen where Yahweh speaks a new way over how that Death spirit governs and set a person free from the death way?

When a person is dead, they have entered a spiritual holding plan that we refer to as the death phase. It's not a plan that is in the one who lives with natural living. The death phase leads at the start of the death of the person. And the demon known as the Death spirit is given governing ways over how the death way leads within those who are dead.

Within every human, it is appointed to taste death. King Jesus came to take back that plan. With an ongoing curse, Yahweh had to come back—back from what happens to all who lie dead in the earth. King Jesus came to:

1. break that plan of ongoing death,
2. bring a new form of way in everlasting life with His shedding of blood and authority through death and resurrection,
3. enforce total governing permissions through Father God.

The Great King came to bring a shift in how the way of death can stay within a dead person. Without the governing power within from the blood of King Jesus, no human will ever be raised to live again. No raising can lead if King Jesus is not the way in yielding to His great power in His shed blood that still covers us.

Do you see it? Saying your human emotional prayer will never bring any dead person from the grave. Yahweh will have to look at what curse is leading and take His blood to cover the death phase while shifting the person from death and into the blood from the shed way.

That shifting way is how King Jesus took the death way and replaced it with His everlasting way of living even while still naturally dead. With a resurrection, Yahweh brings a taste of His blood inside the death phase of the dead person and heals them with His nature of everlasting life. Life from God comes and brings a healing way, from death to living in a natural way. Right now, every living human has a plan of continually breathing in the powerful way Yahweh sustains.

YAHWEH GIVES WISDOM ON A NEW LEVEL:

Isn't all of God's creation being sustained by the words from God's power? Why would the raising up of a dead person be any different? There must not be a human way of seeing. Death is a way of no longer living. At the same breath, the Death spirit has the ruling way over those who have died and keeps them under the act of death, which is a curse spoken by Yahweh. And the only person who would go out and raise up a dead person must have a powerful plan with Yahweh that lets the governing plan, rule at the prayer to bring back a dead person.

If Yahweh holds all of creation together, then, would Yahweh be able to bring changes in His standing order? If your way takes authority over a power force, wouldn't there be power that will turn the former way? See it; Death and Hell are both spirits that can be governed over. I want you to look at this drawing we have on our real book. Thank you for trusting that way.

The Death spirit places a hold on how the person is while they are in the death way. His spirit carries a governing way down into the earth and keeps a hold in spiritual dealings of the death within. Death spirit governs those in the death phase.

Not only are those plans of governing on the Death spirit's task list, having a way to govern from outside the cemetery is allowed. Death can happen to any human at any time. Death follows. Death is searching for others who are approaching death, natural ending to their way. People say that Death should look like this dark figure with a long dark cloak and a reaper sickle. The Death spirit that stays watch is gray, slinky, and not very tall. More and more people are meeting with Death, the spirit, while out and about in their natural activities.

How could no one see clearly that you are a world-level prophet? I hid it from their way. I did not want pride to come up within the work plan. I didn't want you to be careful about how others feel. They could have taken you off course by telling you of how My power flows through your way. I have literally spiritually stripped you of all things that are hindering. Your way is finally broken.

Your spirit cares about the ways of the Lord. I could not let them see you. You are to be a world-famous way within six months. I could not let them see. Hold no hurt from that way of old ways. I could not let them drink in My great power. This level of power can reshape how the natural human looks. Say of that vision where you went to see a sick person with the Healing angel by your whole way.
