

DEMONS IN THE KITCHEN

Cave Training, Kodiak, Alaska

STAGE ONE / ENTRY Two

Today's teaching with Yahweh was different; it was not what I expected. I knew the demons would show because they were in the home even before the training. They were waiting to begin before I was. I noticed a demon was speaking to me when I went into the kitchen to get something to eat, asking me if I was ready for them. And so, I know they knew why Yahweh sent them. When I returned to the kitchen, they spoke in their own way, saying they knew I knew they were in the room, in another part of the house.

There were different demons than the evening before. This past evening, the training's main goal was to learn about their nature without knowing their names. I could tell when the first demon made its way to the bedroom for the first training of the evening. He didn't even have to speak because the Great Holy Spirit told me he was there. I noted the demon, yet I didn't say a word until I heard the Great Holy Spirit's voice giving me the will to drink for the meeting. Yahweh made it clear that the demons knew the Great King had sent them, and that they were being used to train me.

We began with the first demon who stood in the way of the bedroom entry and waited for instructions from Yahweh. I couldn't see the demon. Here, I ultimately depended on listening clearly to what was being stated by the Great Holy Spirit. That was the way I dealt with each demon. The Great Holy Spirit told me to send the demon to a location in the house where King Jesus would command.

The demons already knew Yahweh sent them to engage me. We just placed them in a part of the home where Yahweh commanded. This demon said they would submit to the authority given to the servant of the Great King Jesus. They recognized me in the spirit, where they could see it—the mantle—the delegated authority to do the will of the Great King Jesus.

The next demon didn't operate the same way. We moved to deal with him in accordance with the will of the Great King Jesus. The plan given is through the leading of the Great King Jesus, and the Great Holy Spirit pushes the plan. This demon spoke, refusing to acknowledge King Jesus in His full position as the Great King. He spoke to me in a plan of great anger. He wanted to get closer —to destroy me —but he could not because of my level of protection.

I became anxious as I waited to hear the will through the Great Holy Spirit. I wanted to think it through right now and not have a demon sit close to me, waiting to receive instructions. What seemed like ten minutes was more like one, yet I thought it was too long. So, here's what the Great Holy Spirit willed: He had me wait for a different reason—to teach me the importance of not moving ahead of Him. He told me there was no hurry to start working.

It was important to learn that I must wait for the Great Holy Spirit to speak to know what must be done. This notion changed my view of ministry sessions, where a minister would run to lay hands on or give speeches to the demon, without waiting at all. It's as if they think the cookie-cutter method is a sure solution to dealing with demons of various ranks. But this is not so. The Great Holy Spirit taught me this lesson even as the demon stood there waiting for instructions.

I knew this demon didn't want to be there. The demon had a nasty nature, making it known he didn't think it was fair to be treated this way. When the Great Holy Spirit gave the order to have him placed in another part of the place where I slept, I heard the demon protest the will given, yet he still had to go where King Jesus willed. I heard a demon say that the way they were being treated was not fair. This speech from the demon is the general reply to the order to take a demon to a different place in the dwelling. I was also allowed to hear the angels speak, saying they carry out the will given through the servant of the Great King Jesus, as it came from the Great Holy Spirit.

PURE EVIL

Then came a demon who moved in high rank. The Great Holy Spirit didn't reveal the demon's motive to me, but He made a few details clear as the demon stood in the way of the bedroom's entryway. He told me that the demon in the doorway was Pure Evil. That is the actual name of the demon—Pure Evil. He spoke to share about the nature of the demon, how he looked, and how much he wanted to destroy me. The demon named Pure Evil moved in a rank a little lower than the New Age demon from the evening training the day before. He had tentacles and was massive. The Great Holy Spirit shared that the demon standing there was of an opposite nature to the Spirit of the Living God. This demon was not subtle in his level of influence. This demon carried a penetrating surging of evil, oozing from his nature.

The Great Holy Spirit revealed a plan to me. He showed me that the way the demon moved would be a great shock if I experienced the full engagement of the demon's nature in training in one session. Yahweh told me He restricted my spirit due to not wanting to shock me due to the difference in the nature of a demon of this rank in the kingdom of Satan.

The Great Holy Spirit was making clear: I was only dealing with demons in one part, and it was only time to learn to hear their ways in speech and nature, to distinguish them. That evening, I learned I would train in stages: First, learning to hear in the spirit to tell when a demon is speaking. Next, the Great Holy Spirit will allow me to feel them in the room, and my spirit will notice their evil presence and material makeup. After sensing demons in the room, the next stage would be to see them and fully engage as if they had materialized. The Great Holy Spirit will release me to see and interact with this unseen realm in advance of having the critical skills.

The demon still stood there as the Great Holy Spirit gave me this lesson concerning it. Then the Great Holy Spirit told me to speak to the demon, telling it to go to a place in the home where King Jesus wanted. This demon had the fiercest approach I had yet seen. The demon yelled at me, stating he hated me. Pure Evil continually spoke evil against me while I waited to drink from King Jesus. This demon even spoke, saying he was a high-ranking demon who shouldn't be treated this way. It amazed me that even demons cared about their ranking in a demon-structured detail.

How do the angels operate? Would they also have a structure in which they would submit to Yahweh and do the work assigned to them based on their position? I knew that angels have different duties. There are guardian angels. Some angels move to guard churches, while others guard natural territories.

I know that Yahweh has angels guarding various places. I knew that angels could take a position and guard a nation. It is even given for angels to move into guarding territories for the Great King. There was a vision that the Great King gave me. He showed me His angels, great in size, walking over the world, doing the Great King's will. Wow, those are major angels. King Jesus commands all angels to do His will in and around the earth.

Why move in fear, with the Lord giving His will to keep and watch over you? What is preventing you from reaping this blessing to be in the will of the Great King? Look to the Great Holy Spirit to reveal any entryways given to the devil and the demons who serve him to come and move against you.

There is no fear in surrendering to the Great King Jesus and serving Him. There is pure love, peace, and joy in the Great Holy Spirit. Even so, you will drink pain, sorrow, and hurt from being in this way of earthly living. But do not keep hurt and pain within. Release the hurtful ways to the Great King Jesus so that He will be able to move within and bring full healing to you.

There was one other detail to mention briefly. The last demon to come to the door didn't try to fight at all. The Great Holy Spirit revealed he was a lower demon in rank, and he saw what took place against the higher-ranking demon. He chose not to do anything, realizing he didn't have a plan of victory due to the authority given in the name of King Jesus.

Imagine if the people of Yahweh would drink the will to embrace the delegated authority that comes from knowing King Jesus. What will result from the people walking in the purpose and the full way given by the Great King Jesus? Many demons that Christians deal with would genuinely submit to the way given to them to take, as a believer speaks it in the given authority of the Great King Jesus. You can make demons submit to Yahweh's power. Listen to the Great Way King Jesus. Seek the power from the Great Holy Spirit. Yield to living Yahweh's will in humble ways, giving all glory to our Lord and Savior, King Jesus.

A THOUGHT TO PONDER

November 24, 2021

Dear Reader:

Many will not be able to embrace this level of training. Why should there be an understanding that Satanists can have their encounters with the unseen world, while Christians are not willing to take a moment to talk with Yahweh and get another perspective on what is at hand? We should seek Yahweh before engaging in any level of spiritual activity. And when Yahweh starts to reveal His great will, have a Kingdom power way, and with humble planning, drink.
