SUSANNA SAYS:

A covenant is the most important element to taking on a Kingdom work platform of any level or sphere of influence. Having great wealth will not give the way to building up a Kingdom order. Without a powerful backing from Yahweh, the human will strive and use human efforts and backing to bring forward God's purpose.

Yahweh must be the backing of any work, and to move in the fullness of any work order requires God's approval. When you walk in self-striving, the work will appear in a heavier way than needed. The path to fulfillment may look daunting without God's help. Who can know the purpose of God without talking with Him? Who can drink deep Kingdom wealth without a covenant?

In Scripture, every true prophet of Yahweh had a vow of covenant for their sphere of influence. God could be invoked from the lips of His servant, and with that unity, the work would come forward and be established. Here is an example in Scripture of a covenant plan with a prophet and Yahweh:

(1) After King Ahab's death, the land of Moab rebelled against Israel. (2) One day Israel's new king, Ahaziah, fell through the latticework of an upper room at his palace in Samaria and was seriously injured. So he sent messengers to the temple of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, to ask whether he would recover. (3) But the angel of the LORD told Elijah, who was from Tishbe, "Go and confront the messengers of the king of Samaria and ask them, 'Is there no God in Israel? Why are you going to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, to ask whether the king will recover?' (4) Now, therefore, this is what the LORD says: You will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will surely die.'" So Elijah went to deliver the message. (5) When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you returned so soon?" (6) They replied, "A man came up to us and told us to go back to the king and give him this message. 'This is what the LORD says: Is there no God in Israel? Why are you sending men to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, to ask whether you will recover? Therefore, because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will surely die.'" (7) "What sort of man was he?" the king demanded. "What did he look like?" (8) They replied, "He was a hairy man, and he wore a leather belt around his waist." "Elijah from Tishbe!" the king exclaimed. (9) Then he sent an army captain with fifty soldiers to arrest him. They found him sitting on top of a hill. The captain said to him, "Man of God, the king has commanded you to come down with us." (10) But Elijah replied to the captain, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and destroy you and your fifty men!" Then fire fell from heaven and killed them all. (11) So the king sent another captain with fifty men. The captain said to him, "Man of God, the king demands that you come down at once." (12) Elijah replied, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and destroy you and your fifty men!" And again the fire of God fell from heaven and killed them all. (13) Once more the king sent a third captain with fifty men. But this time the captain went up the hill and fell to his knees before Elijah. He pleaded with him, "O man of God, please spare my life and the lives of these, your fifty servants. (14) See how the fire from heaven came down and destroyed the first two groups. But now please spare my life!" (15) Then the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him, and don't be afraid of him." So Elijah got up and went with him to the king. (16) And Elijah said to the king, "This is what the LORD says: Why did you send messengers to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, to ask whether you will recover? Is there no God in Israel to answer your question? Therefore, because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will surely die." (17) So Ahaziah died, just as the LORD had promised through Elijah. Since Ahaziah did not have a son to succeed him, his brother Joram became the next king. This took place in the second year of the reign of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah. (18) The rest of the events in Ahaziah's reign and everything he did are recorded in The Book of the History of the Kings of Israel.

YAHWEH SAYS:

Was it the human who had power to rain down fire from heaven, or was Yahweh invoked by the covenant connection with the prophet? And what level of power was granted? They dealt with nations, referring to some of the major prophets of old. Look at how Yahweh defended His servant named Moses. Moses had a sphere of influence over Israel, the chosen ones. And with that sphere of influence, Moses wielded power that brought hindering ways to the nation that held the children of Israel under bondage.

So, look at what a covenant can become. Not only will Yahweh's power move the covered person forward into given purpose; Yahweh's power can destroy all who come to hinder the covered one or group.

With the prophet just given in the written Word, there was a covenant that brought an invoked status upon the One called. Yahweh hears all that the prophet says and will weigh the covenant. Within the way of the released prophet, Yahweh gives a covenant that syncs in power with what sphere of influence has been granted.

With a world-level prophet, what way in covenant would be granted? What level of work would Yahweh give the world-level worker that would not bring a dangerous environment to any who could come near? How would Yahweh keep others safe when engaging any with surging power from Yahweh that would have the level of bringing back a buried dead person?

Covenant. The covenant is the most important ingredient. And that is the real way of seeing. I can raise up buried dead people without the help of any human. Why take the time to go with a human prophet in this plan? It is so that humans will embrace Yahweh with a moving of power manifested in natural dealings.

This is the Rain That Heals Movement that will not lead without the full way in your presentation. See, Seersgate leads it. Then street ministry, healing, and deliverance work will stem in the Rain plan and Royal Sanctum. We will give you workers to give great infiltration of My surging power.

And out in the field, there will now be a great shift from television faith healers to healing and demon expelling through books and Internet readings. And with a great surging, you will give the people a taste of the surging blue power stream with a photo. Covenant.

A world-level shift in the era will require a world-level prophet. Preach the Kingdom and prepare the world for the return of King Jesus. And with great surgings of the only True God, the power will give you strength to endure.
