

A VISION OF THE FUTURE

“My name is Susanna of the Rain That Heals Movement. The Great Yahweh has given me the command to say certain words to raise you from the buried dead. It has been three years of waiting for the full power way to take over. What say you?”

—Susanna / Seersgate

“I heard you from the Hell, way down in torment. I am willing to do what your God says just to stay living again. You are darker than I have seen in this former living way. Is there now a mixture of the races? That is your color—as if you were blended. Say what you will do with me. Why was I raised up from the grave? This is my grave here. It is all really done. My, what kind of God are you serving?”

—the dead man raised, the first in the row

“You have a way to hear the conversation a few years before it is given. You saw a vision of one of the dead corpses actually raised. We showed you the one on the far left—the first in the row. He is a white male in a black suit. Wait till it is moved forward. No one will take a prophet’s weight in a message in light casual ways ever again.”
