

I'M SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS

November 24, 2022

8:51 p.m.

I want to put an amendment to the Age of the Antichrist. "Meetings with Yahweh" is now the world-level way. Conversations previously given will now be a free prophet training way. And the "Meetings with Yahweh" books have a world-level work plan.

"Conversations" are at Seersgate. "Meetings with Yahweh" are at I Write Scripture. That is our work level for this weekend.

You will also have a work change: Thanksgiving is a good day to start world-level work. And We begin it this day, where the surging ways of judgment and curses come upon all who walk in that placement.

Servant, we have moved into world-level work. I'm sorry for your loss. Seersgate, we're just wasting funds. Got it? Seersgate, see how it looks one way, but it's not. This level of tangible power: it can kill a human with words. Let Me show you.

I would say, "Servant, send a death sentence to that person." And then after you say, "By order of Yahweh's great will, your death will come," I will come forward by an invoke from the mantle. Seersgate, for some, what you say will bring instant death. It's not that you are the power; Yahweh has it. And with a covenant, how Yahweh deals with you is covenant-based. We are joined in a covenant.

Seersgate, I'm sorry they would not let you in.

Seersgate, the window of grace has passed.

I will complete this covenant will and have it fully pushed by Christmas. Thank you. Are you understanding? Seersgate, We have to start turning your spirit now for a prepared way. Grace is gone, and the curses are being moved in. So, Thanksgiving gives an ending to the old way, a sealing off, to get My servant in ready ways for the actual ten-year mantle training. So, by a covenant law, the old way is done, and a new way will come forward and be fully revealed by Christmas Day. In this covenant plan, I had to put them under their rightful way by order so that all would have a locked action for spiritual turning.

Obviously, mad at your way, that person. No Mercy with healthy heart ways will ignore someone they formally looked to receive counsel. See? No real loyalty. So be it. I have no need to keep her. The other: she needs a shaking-up plan. How? With your way of turning.
