

FATHER'S DAY 2024

May 18, 2022

5:08 p.m.

Seersgate:

I don't want to be rich if I have to be like the people on TV. It seems like the focus is on what jewelry they wear or what name is on their outfit. I should make my own line and determine my worth with society that way. I don't want to have to pretend or keep up with the culture. I want to be real. I want nice things, but I don't want to be driven by what I wear.

I want the billions of dollars so I can influence how many healing rooms we can build. I want a comfortable house and to take care of my family. I want to own a movie studio and war against Satan with spiritual movies that show the spirit realm. I love theatre and the arts. I love traveling and going on adventures. But I want my work to state a reality, not something that looks like it may not be a real plan.

I want the world to say, "There goes a dangerous prophet of old. Her God is really with her. Stay away from her" —not this: "Well, she could be using demons because what she is saying cannot be proven."

Yahweh:

Good. Let Me interject. Oh, I burned out the craving for natural wealth. You want nothing to do with being rich and famous. And that is where We needed your heart. This burning away of the flesh is not fun. It's not meant to be. We're in it, servant, the thirty hard days. These first few days will be quite painful. The detox is not just a natural way. Just as how Paul had before him a moment to review what he will deal with, I do the same with your way. But I'm taking a minimum of ninety days to have you reflect.

Let's do Father's Day in 2024 to begin our presentation. And I will continue to do the conditional release. Now we will stay at 87 percent surging until that day. You're going to be so different one year from this day. It would be nice in one year to be in the new place. What does that waiting really mean, servant? The fullness of time, servant.

If I were you, I would make sure to take your mom to Israel soon. Go and visit your father, your earthly relative. Presentation means something so much greater. It literally means presentation. And at your world-level status of mantle training, the result of the presentation needs to be at that level. So, I will give world-level treats to keep you stable.

And you will go to churches and gain reports. You will watch and observe as I take you through internal changes. So, this Father's Day—that time frame—I will start to push major visions and dreams. You're tired, aren't you? You're tired of waiting. We will only have our books on our personal platform. We will do podcasts like how we did in Kodiak.
