

NO FRIENDS

February 23, 2022

11:28 p.m.

Yahweh yields and brings a power plan forward:

Who wants to be friends with one of the most rejected under the Church seeing ways? You, Seersgate, please do not think that you will gain a great group of people who will take in what you say without giving any proof of who you are. Even today, someone we had you engage with is not actually your friend—more like a scout for previous leaders.

It hurts, doesn't it, to want the people to just embrace you. But they need their seeing will to gain them a way of proof.

What is the way of proving you are this modern-day prophet of old? Will that happen with making demons speak? What proof comes with walking by and causing these simple planning ways to fall out? YOU HAVE NO REAL FRIENDS, in bold caps. No one has your work on their minds. No one is calling to talk. No one is praying the vision forward.

They gossip, those from that former plan. They are a rebellious way for how they left their outlet. They will have a promised surging but will not have a touch in their personal walk. The house will have the touch. Their woman leader is a gossip hub, and a great crowd goes to her for quote “spiritual insight,” but her seeing is hindered by how Satan uses her to carry her personal thoughts forward as gospel. The man has a craving for more but wants some form of proof that you are what you are calling yourself forward as.

No one has come forward to talk with you and ask you how the work is going. Not one person comes and comforts you when you go off crying from the level of rejection. But I have not even allowed Satan's messenger to push the hard level of rejection. With that hard level, there will be a surging from your mantle that comes forward as My power.

The way of proof will be how I change your way and how you give My Spirit into the earth. No more trying to cause the people to want your way; stand firm and let Yahweh have a leading within. And let no one cause your heart to feel off due to not letting you into their cliques or circles of influence. Be who Yahweh says you are. Stand firm with My power.

I will not make you wait for the presentation way. I change My mind and will overrule My order. Just like the prophet Isaiah delivered a Word from Yahweh, and then the king turned towards Me and prayed, I looked at his heart and gave a new order. I gave a new order for your heart as well. Let's go to Orlando for a short trip on the weekend of Mother's Day. I want to push the mantle and start your ten-year world-level training and the first year of a three-year presentation. I will not have you wait.

And I want a new phone number upon the return. I will pick the area phone code.

I don't want you to feel that I am not listening. Power comes to do the work. Where are we in our training now? You are stripping away in the preparation. A 70-day strip of vegetables and water will prepare you for what is ahead, the greatest level of rejection you have ever tasted.

How did you make Me give you a new plan? You accepted your fate.
