

ABOUT THE BURIED DEAD

SEERSGATE:

Yahweh, how can the buried be raised to life, fully restored, with immortal bodies? Can You raise dead bodies? God, how can that plan truly be real? Let us share hearts and truly be transparent. Will You have a way to find true proof that this can be done and with a way to convince the whole world?

GOD I AM:

I can.

SEERSGATE:

How can that be done?

GOD I AM SHARES HIS WILL CONCERNING RAISING THE BURIED DEAD:

You have been to a cemetery just recently, and in this visit, you looked at a buried way, hoping what is written will come and be made a clear way for others to drink it. And We talked with the servant and brought her to questions that cannot have human reasoning to be clearly seen.

You can only look with spiritual movings to truly drink how I will raise up the buried dead. What do you hear Me say? King Jesus spoke all things that exist in natural movings, and since He spoke all, then He will surely have to speak another plan that will overrule what curse has been placed upon the moving of the whole earth in the Garden of Eden.

Words are looked at lightly by the human race. There would be greater movings to punish the person who breaks these earthly laws through physical violence, yet all have a skewed perception of how a person murders with their tongue under their natural detail of earthly viewing. The way truly must be clear that a person will have a certain sphere to influence and would be able to ensure destruction with casual speaking to hurt other humans under their care.

You have to see that humans are in existence based solely on how I gave the verbal creation in the very beginning when all was just in early settings. I can speak a new plan and shift all in creation. I could stop how much oxygen will fill up the earth's atmosphere. I could add another very major natural law that would be firmly in place, whether you agree with it or not.

How can humans walk with a great pride when they truly have a way to breathe by My will? Only will a person who fears Me with reverent, obedient ways will truly learn this detail: all is being held in place with a Prophet's spoken word.

You have to see that you are a filled prophet. I have given you all of the five office gifts. That plan will seem truly hard for church leaders to have in deep drinking. If they look at the Seersgate outlets, can you have a Prophet office only? Or would you have to be well-rounded and fully enabled, just as Satan is fully arming his servant?

Satan has his servant already in a way of deep training, and the devil will not have a weak unarmed moving in a power way of utter destruction. Satan will make sure that the antichrist has a great horde within, to have a major plan that will cause worldwide fear.

You are My servant, called to preach a very major message. You had to be a female so that no one will say you are Satan's servant. I have chosen you, and you had to have all gifts in the office way. How can you have proof? All that you have is My calling. All you have is a word.

You have a power way that will not leave till you are in your final living plan. How can a proof come out to cause the whole world to be turned in their way, to want the ways of power from your true King? You have a plan.

Power also has authority. You have delegated power from My plan. You shall raise up the dead as if you are praying for a sick person. All can be called out of the grave that they lie in, but there must be order, for with raising up a dead person, ripples in history will shift all in that person's line to have a major influence over masses. If you raised a famous person, your way could deal with the backlash of rejection if that person caused a great deal to turn against the moving of culture.

I have told you I have a certain dead person that you are to pray to see raised up. You will walk a way that will have raised up many in the death stage before going to the person's plot. You will talk with this buried dead person when getting a major report on the Hell.

Power is not limited, but a human cannot take within natural ways how I truly move in the deepest way: I could kill a person. My power is unlimited. You have been zapped by power that is able to raise up the buried dead. All that you now will drink is that level.

Power will have to be greater than all that is moving. Why are there no details of great healings? What if I held that from the current way so that My true Body will walk in separate ways? You will go out and build these healing rooms—tabernacles—and I will back up the way and will heal all. "All" has a way to mean all who enter.

I will let you know where the first healing tabernacle will be built. These tabernacles will have a glory filling that cannot shift to take on what fills the sick. That means that a sick one will have to take on what power way is moving in the healing room.

Power, presence, and glory have also flowed and have a way to come and visit you. But now there cannot have a detail of that plan in a way of leaving. I have the power way to have you stay filled. Containers were birthed forth for this purpose. All parts have been recorded in The Altar.

I will now have you pushed into the Holy of Holies, where the power surging is greatest. But with the shifting, I have you in under a year of fasting and of preparation. There is no waiting. All have been tested. Your way has gone through fire, and now I can fill you. Have a way to say “goodbye” to the ways that are a long while past.

The ground at the grave where We had you stand seems hard to break up. But look at the human as a way that can be erased and rebuilt with supernatural power-spoken words, and the prophet shall have a mentality that will shift to pray for limbs to grow out and eyes to form.

You will see that Kingdom wealth in Heaven can literally change shape to take on earthly looks to give you needed wealth to push the Great King’s plan. When you look at the natural realm as a plan that can be erased and written over, you will then see. I have given you a major gift. I will have you learn to give very major shifts, to erase major movings of details that have kept My Body in oppressive ways.

The ground can shift and change. The human has been made from dust. All have been made by Me. With authority, you can take a buried dead person, erase their decayed way, and bring their planning way into another way.
