

THE THIRD IMPARTATION INITIATED

Spring, Texas

A Halloween Night, Before 2015

SUSANNA SEERSGATE LEADS THIS:

I was waiting for a long time for the Great King to fill me with power for street ministry. Many would say that no special dealing in the anointing is needed to give a person the Good News about King Jesus, and I would fully agree. But in this case, with me, the servant is not moving in general ways of spreading the Good News, with just handing out details for others to read in their spare time.

What God means by "street ministry": His will is for me to minister to the sick and bring healing with His great anointing and glory and moving of great power. First, He wills for me to move in powerful signs, wonders, and miracles in Kingdom living. Then, He wills for me to speak the Good News, moving in giving that person God's plan in both details.

For this street ministry level, this servant must move in the fullest way in service, not just with telling the Gospel: There must be a release in power to move in my level of work in the Great Way King Jesus. That is truly why the servant had to wait for Yahweh to give the will concerning this major will in Kingdom living.

The event happened just last night. It was a Halloween night in natural details, but there was a local church building in spiritual ways, moving in a breakthrough service detail. There was a calling within me to go to this local building. There wasn't any hunger for that church, but power was still a great longing within me, and I hoped that the Great Way would do anything to get me into the new work way. I had no moving within to say "no" to the Great King. It was His will that gave me the will to go.

Before I left for the service, the Great King told me that He would take me into something by giving me a detail. I hoped for so much, yet I was willing to settle for just a vision in any detail that He would bring me. I longed for a real moving in this third level of the Great Way, but He would not give it based on me just wanting it. He showed me His will. I gave in to His will and moved to seek what He would bring me.

At the church way in Spring, Texas, people in the service were hungry for more of what God had promised to bring in that house detail. I looked at the many different shapes and different moving in races—to see a needed way in the full Body—to be mixed in their people in each building. I looked at what the Great Way showed me. There, He made His will clear for me to drink deeply.

In a vision, the Great King gave me His will. He showed me a lesson in submission to another in ministry. That means I will never be above getting a message or plan from God given through a vessel with a smaller sphere of covering. With a world-level calling, a prophet can think too highly of themselves when they should always have a humble heart and receive any message from God, regardless of who is delivering God's plan. God showed me that I would never be in a place where I cannot learn from others, even if they move in a lesser governing detail.

It is only by grace can this servant move in any detail. Nothing came from me, where I have anything apart from King Jesus. I claim no special privileges with Him. There is a major calling placed upon me, and that is truly the reason in this full detail. There, as the Great Way showed me this vision for me to move in this third way in His great anointing, I had to submit, to give this leader in that building, a way to place his hands on the servant—not to impart—for the great plan was shown, how the anointing was above me. With his laying of hands on my skin, a major activation would flood my spirit with this deeper level in the Great King.

I had the will, and I just needed to come and submit to the earthly way in action to show faith in what my Great King gave me. God sent me to a local church pastor, and as a sign of yielding, I had to allow that local pastor to lay his hands on me. God showed me that the pastor had no level of power that I needed. I just had to show faith in God by submitting to a leader over a smaller sphere of influence. God showed me what was taking place.

The pastor told his prayer leaders that they needed to “work on me” some more since I wasn’t “falling out” by his touch. How could I fall out when what was flowing from above and into my spirit was a greater surging of power than what was in his spirit? That pastor assumed that I did not “fall out in the Spirit” because I had stuff in my heart that needed to be dealt with. He was relying on a power level that could only be relied on by touch when, I could see it, how God was overruling any level in that local building.

His prayer ministers later confirmed that they could see the calling upon me and that there was a real seer in their midst. This is why I have been banned from church: Too many will sense the purpose God has placed within me. But I am now ready.

I look forward to being in the field with others who love King Jesus. There may be different methods in this Kingdom work, but let our base be His great love, where we move in Christ’s will with His purpose, calling, and with the motive to do it as if He were here on the earth in a natural detail for us to follow and obey.
