

CATHOLIC FAITH VERSUS CHRISTIAN NEEDLES

Catholics view themselves as being of the Christian faith. How much of the detail given in their way will truly come in line with Scripture? Truly, what is within most Christian churches? They move in doing their will that they think will bring them closer to walking in a true relationship with Yahweh. There must be a true detail that will speak to both sides of this "Christian" title. Both have their own way of viewing serving King Jesus.

Let's place a basic faith detail that can be given: No matter which way you call it, your spirit has to be born again, where you have eternal life in King Jesus. The God I AM must be your True God. There can only be one way to Heaven, and that way is through King Jesus. If your faith says you can get into a relationship with God in any other way than through King Jesus, your way is a plan given by Satan.

I will not give you any false hope in saying there will be eternity with King Jesus based on how much you pray or your good works. There is no hope of being eternally saved without a relationship with King Jesus. There is no will to live with Jehovah by ignoring King Jesus. King Jesus is the One who holds all things together.

(13) He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, (14) in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (15) He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. (16) For by Him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through Him and for Him. (17) And He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. (18) And He is the Head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything He might be preeminent. (19) For in Him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, (20) and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of His cross.

What has taken place in churches to change the Good News, to have it say that if you do not go to a church building, you will burn in Hell for all eternity? Who says you have to pray to Mary, a “saint,” or any person you think will give you eternal life? Where is it stated in Scripture that you will be saved if you give money in a church building or sit in a box and talk to a priest?

Where is it stated that you must look a certain way to attend a church meeting? What rulebook states that only those who dress a certain way and wear their hair a certain plan will be considered holy? Who is making up these rules? Tell me: who is being fooled here? If you truly read Scripture, it will make it clear that God’s church is spiritual, and no earthly building will ever have a way to give salvation. No man, woman, boy, or girl can save you. Only in King Jesus is eternal salvation given through His precious blood.

Both sides will have to look at their religious way of dealing with humans. Churches say they know that King Jesus is the only Way to Heaven, yet they ignore the Spirit of God to get into Heaven, where the Great Holy Spirit is not given ways to lead God’s people in these church buildings. Churches must look and see that I am not going to give Satan a place through any judgment dealings.

You must look at the Great Way’s will and gain His wisdom and break off old attachments so that you can grow in spiritual ways. People look to tradition and want to stay “safe” based solely on being led with natural senses. Let Yahweh gauge your heart. Don’t judge the church outlets based on your vote in the pew. Should it matter what people want in their service? Should there be a vote based on people-pleasing? Giving King Jesus what He says is needed to grow the church.

What if you hear Yahweh’s will? Would you turn from looking to humans for affirmation and start looking to His Spirit for wisdom and help? Let God bring the ways to reach the many in need. Let Yahweh show you how to take the Gospel to the entire earth in love, but with truth, how Yahweh sees it. Drink fresh movements in God.

You hope for a spiritual Heaven, yet you cannot fathom being here surrounded by angels and demons. You pray to dead saints in hopes of raising the dead in that way. Do not be deceived; you cannot raise any dead with your human power. It is solely up to King Jesus who He will raise and in what timing He wills to do so.

Look and learn this: Scripture in God's written Word has been altered and changed with human will. There have been Books taken out, and a way has been given to put in that way, other Books that churches, in old dealings, said were truly of God. Humans placed certain Books in canon details to present as solely God's will, in spoken form. What of those Books that were removed from the Bible set? Are those Books no longer His will since humans removed them from the Bible set? Or would it make more sense to truly see that placing Books into canon form will not make them holy?

Here is the church's problem: Many people say they speak a word of the Lord, yet they do not hear Him speak it. Foolish humans are looking to hear words that tickle the ears, but their hearing will not be filled with true life in Yahweh. You must see that anything God says is holy. Humans placed certain Books as holy and excluded anything else spoken by God. God's spoken Word is God-breathed and is a holy way.

The will is clear that King Jesus didn't stop speaking when the Book of Revelation was penned. It takes the will in Jehovah to give you eternal life through King Jesus, and it is the Great Holy Spirit who comes to live in your spirit, to give a connection, in spirit, so you will be able to worship God in spirit and in truth.

The people are misled into thinking that God's Word carries a lesser weight in being moved on than what was placed in canon form. Yahweh is the same God of Moses' time frame. Yahweh is all-powerful and still fully able to hold all things together. King Jesus will return. Be prepared.
