

Letter One: Scapegoat Kathryn

FROM SEERSGATE:

Yahweh warned you. The people see it, yet they are enamored by her way of smiles and gentle speech. But what did Yahweh show you? But what did Yahweh present? A demon under the fake mask of smiles and love. "God bless you," she says as they bow down to her. How dare they?! How dare these people embrace a human in place of Yahweh? How dare they?!

Yahweh will not allow anyone to take His glory. No one can be placed up on a pedestal and take the place of Yahweh. No one can deliver you but Yahweh. The idol worship must stop. Putting these preachers up on pedestals must be dealt with.

Yahweh gives grace for a little longer, but now Yahweh is looking to bring judgment. The love of Yahweh is not diminished. Love is also shown in correction and judgment. What needs to happen for the church followers to depart from her way? Should there be a greater pouring out of some form of action, something that makes people want to take a look and say, "Hey, wow, look, there is greater power over here"?

Doesn't anyone see that John the Baptist was a great prophet yet displayed no power? He followed Yahweh's commands—a servant, serving Yahweh until death—no separating and no wavering to worship false lowercase gods.

The idolatry in the Church must be dealt with. The way of judgment must come. Yahweh, what is Your great will?

YAHWEH IS NOW LEADING:

I will judge all the churches that say they worship Yahweh. I will look upon them and will start taking away whatever covenant they carried and will take it to the lowly servants who stand with Yahweh, who will not bend to the current culture that overtakes the Church. I will not go to those who are lifted up by man. I will not go to those who are on their god pedestals. I will not visit those who say they are their own lowercase god, for they have turned from serving Yahweh.

The Church as a Body has turned and is taking in doctrines of demons. They side with the world and those who influence, and say they are evolving and will take in any level of sinful living and turn away from Me. And see it; Yahweh will not let the grace cover and keep them from tasting My anger. Yahweh turns away in anger.

But will they pray to Yahweh, or will they say that the people do not give a great tithing? Will they say it is the people's fault due to their lack of giving as to why Yahweh turned His face?

My exposure is not to say I said it first. Rather, power of any level from Yahweh must not come under the ways of idolatry. Look at how I dealt with the children of Israel. Didn't I also hear of their evil sayings, and didn't I note their evil living? And yet I stayed with them. But did I pretend that sin was okay to abide in continually? Could I bear that pretending, just as how the Church does?

They say to Me, "We love You, Yahweh," and with those same lips, they say to the continual sinner, "Yahweh does not care how you live. Worship yourself as your own lowercase god. You are also a god!" And the people say, "Oh, yes, I like this! Jesus will accept me just the way I am, and I can stay this way. He will not judge me. God is love." How blinded you are.

Yahweh is a mighty God, the Judge of all, yet I gave grace. I gave grace for many natural years. It's not that grace did not carry the Church, but how much longer should I let grace make the people think that they can have a pass to live however they want to? The first scapegoat must come under judgment.

If I stripped away grace...
