

I TOOK THAT PROPHET

July 11, 2021

6:04 p.m.

YAHWEH IS DEALING WITH HOW PROPHETS ARE. YAHWEH STATES:

I took that man, servant. It's not that you gave a death sentence. I choose to take the godly and sinners by death. Is all death planned in My timing? It is. But some choose to break Yahweh's order and go their way. Is it Yahweh's will that any should perish? No, it is not. But does that stop any from doing their own will?

Am I evil for taking that prophet? Do I not care for that family left behind? No one should ever feel that being here on Earth outweighs going to Heaven. A person leaves their earthly shell behind in death, yet the person is not fully complete without their earthly outer shell. The ground holds what is left, while a follower of King Jesus shares in the wonder offered in Heaven. But there will be a raising up of all those dead in natural ways so that there can be a reuniting with a now incorruptible shell.

I had to take him to make room for a new power way out from old ways, not in the former way of training prophets. In death, a true follower of Yahweh will enter eternity in judgment ways. See how Yahweh wills the Great White Throne judgment. Aren't the ones who are in Yahweh covered by the blood of King Jesus? What judgment can be given forward when the blood of King Jesus gives a covering? Every person must live a certain way and complete their own spiritual race.

Is the way the race is carried out a part of the Great White Throne judgment? Is the Great White Throne judgment where the follower of King Jesus gets a reward for how they served Yahweh? You know what Scripture states. People need to weigh their way of living and, at the same breath, fear Me. Put those Scriptures Yahweh places in your spirit.

(30) The one who is not with Me is against Me; and the one who does not gather with Me scatters. (31) "Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven. (32) And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

—Matthew 12:30-32 NASB

(12) These false teachers are like unthinking animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed. They scoff at things they do not understand, and like animals, they will be destroyed. (13) Their destruction is their reward for the harm they have done. They love to indulge in evil pleasures in broad daylight. They are a disgrace and a stain among you. They delight in deception even as they eat with you in your fellowship meals. (14) They commit adultery with their eyes, and their desire for sin is never satisfied. They lure unstable people into sin, and they are well trained in greed. They live under God's curse. (15) They have wandered off the right road and followed the footsteps of Balaam son of Beor, who loved to earn money by doing wrong. (16) But Balaam was stopped from his mad course when his donkey rebuked him with a human voice. (17) These people are as useless as dried-up springs or as mist blown away by the wind. They are doomed to blackest darkness. (18) They brag about themselves with empty, foolish boasting. With an appeal to twisted sexual desires, they lure back into sin those who have barely escaped from a lifestyle of deception. (19) They promise freedom, but they themselves are slaves of sin and corruption. For you are a slave to whatever controls you. (20) And when people escape from the wickedness of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and then get tangled up and enslaved by sin again, they are worse off than before. (21) It would be better if they had never known the way to righteousness than to know it and then reject the command they were given to live a holy life. (22) They prove the truth of this proverb: "A dog returns to its vomit." And another says, "A washed pig returns to the mud."

—2 Peter 2:12-22 NLT

(3) And so, God willing, we will move forward to further understanding. (4) For it is impossible to bring back to repentance those who were once enlightened—those who have experienced the good things of heaven and shared in the Holy Spirit, (5) who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the power of the age to come— (6) and who then turn away from God. It is impossible to bring such people back to repentance; by rejecting the Son of God, they themselves are nailing Him to the cross once again and holding Him up to public shame.

—Hebrews 6:3-6 NLT

(35) But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?" (36) You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (37) And what you sow is not the body that is to be, but a bare kernel, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. (38) But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body. (39) For not all flesh is the same, but there is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish. (40) There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is of one kind, and the glory of the earthly is of another. (41) There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.

(42) So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. (43) It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. (44) It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. (45) Thus it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. (46) But it is not the spiritual that is first but the natural, and then the spiritual. (47) The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. (48) As was the man of dust, so also are those who are of the dust, and as is the man of heaven, so also are those who are of heaven. (49) Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.

(50) I tell you this, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. (51) Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, (52) in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. (53) For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. (54) When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written:

"Death is swallowed up in victory."

(55) "O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?"

(56) The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. (57) But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

(58) Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

—1 Corinthians 15:35-58 ESV

(11) Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat upon it, from whose presence earth and heaven fled, and no place was found for them. (12) And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged from the things which were written in the books, according to their deeds. (13) And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them; and they were judged, each one of them according to their deeds. (14) Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. (15) And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

—Revelation 20:11-15 NASB

(5) For Moses writes of the righteousness that is based on the Law, that the person who performs them will live by them. (6) But the righteousness based on faith speaks as follows: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will go up into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down), (7) or 'Who will descend into the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)." (8) But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart"—that is, the word of faith which we are preaching, (9) that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved; (10) for with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation. (11) For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in Him will not be put to shame." (12) For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, abounding in riches for all who call on Him; (13) for "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

—Romans 10:5-13 NASB

YAHWEH CONTINUES:

Every follower of King Jesus must have their eyes set on doing the will of Yahweh, following the teachings of King Jesus, spreading the Kingdom, and sharing the gospel of Christ. How can any woman, man, or child put all their hope in a dead prophet, feeling that that prophet had the only outlet of touching portals to constant surgings? Think about that way.

A real prophet has a office calling that comes with a covenant that can invoke Yahweh. And when that prophet passes on, no one else can take on that office-level work without Yahweh transferring the calling.

I took him as a sign. The days of Billy Graham, Prophet Joshua, Lake, and Wigglesworth are ended. What must come forward? Judgment—first in Yahweh’s house. Cleanse all of the instruments. Wash the altar of connections to worldly outlets due to setting up covenants and friendships with worldly cultural influences.

What real prophet can have a real friendship with Satan’s followers? Are they going to share houses, referring to spiritual understanding? Can a servant of Yahweh tell a occult outlet that there is unity?

This is not a comparison of sins. This is a true understanding that there cannot be a worldly covenant while expecting Yahweh to say, “You’re in My plan.”

It’s time for a new era of prophets to rise up. What kind of prophet? One who can take on creative outlets and bring the natural ways under Kingdom outlets. How? By not separating church and state. Which church? Yahweh’s governmental order, not a structure, not a way of culture from the slavery way of separation.

The time is now for prophets to have a way of dealing with body, soul, and spirit, understanding that there is a spirit realm, not having a blind vision concerning how sin turns a person. There must be a reading of the Word of Yahweh, transforming how the mind operates. There must be a yielding to preparation and training, not people-pleasing.

Where are My new prophets, those who are trained and are ready to build up Yahweh's way, separated from the old tradition of gathering? Where are those who demand a holy way? Are you with Us? Are you with Yahweh?

A SPECIAL NOTE:

Sometimes, Yahweh doesn't say "an" when grammar wording notes it but would use an "a." It's not a grammatical error but a taking note of the actual way spoken.
