

October 27, 2010

“I will tell you what to repeat”

YAHWEH: I will tell you what to repeat, Susanna. Just wait for Me to tell you what to repeat. That is how you will know. You will hear Me speak. I will tell you many different things, but the way to know it is to be shared is by listening and waiting. First, you will hear Me say something; then the next step is critical: waiting for the directions. Think of it as getting the address, then next, you need to know how to get there. Wait on Me for the directions as to what you are hearing. Wait on Me to hear first. Then once you hear something, wait on Me to tell you what to do with what you hear.

Yes, it is a different way of thinking, but it is okay. It is necessary. You will learn. You will learn. Yes, you did make a mistake by telling her the last part, but let's move on. This is training ground. You must learn to listen and wait to know what to do with what I give you. Don't hold on to this issue like you did with the other thing. Let go, and let's move on. If she asks you about it in the future, let her know that you made a mistake by telling her.

Let's move on, Susanna. This is training ground. Don't worry about the mistakes. The key is to keep moving on and do what I tell you to do. The key is to release, forgive, and let's start fresh. Let's continue on through this process. You will always make mistakes because you are not perfect. This is why you have to trust Me and wait for Me to tell you things, to lead you.

This is important, Susanna. But you are learning to wait. Don't get discouraged during this process. I am with you. Just keep being obedient to what I tell you to do. I love you so much. I love you, Susanna. Yes, your husband is ready for bed. This is all for now. Let's talk in the morning.

SUSANNA: Okay. Thank You, Lord.

“I will tell you what to repeat”

© Seersgate – www.seersgate.com