

THE DEATH SPIRIT'S HOME

SEERSGATE SAYS:

A person can hear angels and demons. A person can also engage in unseen events and drink in spiritual transformations. You enter a new realm after being birthed forth as a new creation upon receiving the One who created all—King Jesus.

I am alive in the Great Way King Jesus. I surrendered to serving the will of my King. I am not afraid to engage the devil when that time is here. You have a way to know that I have entered many different assignments that deal with other realms and regions. I am not content with staying in the natural, where I pretend that other realms do not exist.

Take a look at what was given into this servant's way while entering a local cemetery on two occasions. There is a major training way that is used in these visits to a local cemetery. You will be pleased to know that the Great Way is always in a plan that will truly sustain you.

I walked out to the local plan and moved in seeing that there will always be a guardian over any land. A spirit is always guarding a cemetery. For what? They will be there to engage any foreign will. I stood on this boundary between a church building and a street that was a natural divider. The prophet noted a shift from the church to the cemetery and the road.

On the second visit of the two mentioned, I was definitely with this spirit that owned its own way. I was dealing with a Death spirit, and that plan made it where I could have an in-depth view of how the territory was behind what the natural realm showed.

This Death spirit took me over to view this full way. I have heard it speak in previous times but had a way to dismiss it as any other spirit. What made it an important detail?

I was viewed in these visits as a true servant coming over into dealing in a territory with the enemy of God.

These visits were diplomatic. But with these dealings, I entered another realm and dealt with unseen beings. I could experience this with a will that would be from natural tasting, but it would not have a way to help with spiritual matters.

I entered a Death spirit's home. And I was treated as if they were aware of the work that I carry within my spirit. And they acknowledged that there would be no plan given to have their way fully removed. I have a wisdom-filled view of seeing how the Death spirit keeps bodies in the death stage plan. I was told to come back again at any time.

When I left the grounds of the cemetery, I was still able to hear the Death spirit speak a plan that made it clear that he follows. A spirit can follow any person who is still alive. The Death spirit is not confined to dead, human flesh, for death is moving in the whole world based on God's plan that each person is appointed to taste death. Death will not be able to have leading ways over a plan of the God who can raise any. Usually, the person carries a plan within, to embrace the way, based on hoping for eternity.

Death is powerless to a true believer in the Great Way. It would truly seem as if Death is the greatest demon, but why would this way be confused in a believer in the Great Way? It's truly due to how the human views what they can see with natural vision. Let me explain. I can view natural things, and based on how I operate mostly with other natural dealings, it may seem to any that the natural will carry the will in leading. But look at Heaven: Is Heaven natural-based, or is it a will that is spirit?

You will see it. The natural will take a plan to be shaped by decrees given by spiritual leading ways. God spoke the world into existence. He still holds all things together by His spoken Word. Walking into the cemetery naturally was to be inside a major territory that has a major portal into Satan's home in the center of the earth.

To be freely welcomed is to be given levels of respect in other realms based solely on how God wills in flowing His powerful plan into me. The prophet wears a mantle; you cannot see it with natural vision. You can only truly see spirit details with a spiritual vision that would come and take a leading plan within you.

Your house is in Heaven if you are a child of God. Will you stay in Heaven in this natural, sin-filled body? The way must be fully seen: You can enter territories based on natural standing. This will also show that even the human body is a house for a spirit, and when you move in having sex with any, you have given the other person a plan to share what they have within their way freely.

Hell will truly not be a home of Satan that you would feel welcomed in. Satan is not faithful. The devil will come and destroy you if you let him. I have been a faithful servant to the One who created all. What will be next?

GOD I AM SPEAKS A MAJOR PLAN INTO THE NATURAL:

You are aware of what will be the next level in demon dealings. There are ten demons waiting to deal with you. You cannot escape this very hard preparation. I am in a plan to get you ready for world viewing. I am in a plan to have you taste the fullest details in seeing and hearing, and touching.

I am faithful to take good care of the way that is within you. Your training way is starting quickly. We just wait till you are in your own dwelling way. And with that power way, there cannot be details of surrender.

You are the one who will lead Seersgate into the deepest way. Never fear any demon. Never say you want to leave this major work of Seersgate. Never say you will walk against Me. Always come and drink from My Great Spirit.

Also, be a willing servant, ready to shift into dealing with demons that could kill you. I am not worried. I am fully aware of the level of work that you can carry. It is a world plan in drinking. Now shift. Drink it, the filling that is waiting. Carry the full weight of Seersgate now.
