

THE DEMON INFLUENCE

Dealing with Demon Influences - Part Two

Many would say that only those who deal in worshipping Satan through witchcraft will have areas within that are demon-influenced, but as noted in the first lesson, these demons move to live in a body that is open to receive them. This is given through permission as well as through hurtful events within a person's heart.

Some have demons within due to being given to Satan before birth. Others have demons from the family line or through various familiar spirits shared or passed from one person to another. How would one know this? Truly, what's really moving behind the scenes can only be revealed in truth by the Great Holy Spirit.

People look to a thing with any supernatural results for answers, not knowing they would be in danger when looking to a demon for their answers. Who is looking for answers? All are looking, searching, seeking—hoping to fill the void with something greater than them. Isn't that what religion is supposed to do—give you something that is portrayed as greater than yourself so you would have a person, a thing, a dealing to look to, to bring you peace? "What is so wrong about this?" most would say. What is greater than what you drink shouldn't be something you created.

Should you have to make a god for you to worship? Should you have to put your god on a stand to keep it from falling over? Your god is not powerful or real if you have to create it. The one who creates is greater than the created thing. This should awaken some to see that you are worshipping a moving that is not the One True God: You worship an idol in place of the One True God, moving in sin, and sin leads to death.

You cannot think that a god of wood and clay would be greater than Yahweh, who created the heavens and the earth.

The Great King Jesus created every detail—both seen and unseen. He created the angels and the demons, who were once angels before they rebelled and took Satan as their master.

Every human was created, none by evolution. From the very beginning, Yahweh formed Adam out of the dirt and gave him life. Then Yahweh took the woman out from the man and gave her life, as she is also created in the image of the One True God.

Both the male and the female came through the Creator. Look and see the vast creation of the Great King Jesus. Look at human nature in the way in the Spirit living and note the qualities within that came through being created by the Savior of the world.

No created thing is greater than the God who created it. There is no logic in worshipping something created. Just as God Himself would not come and bow down to a human in worship, why do humans create details to then worship in the place of the Creator? This is not just for those who make their gods: People look to themselves for their saving grace. They say it is by their way they exist.

Some would worship their clothes, their money, or their loved ones. Some would worship people to feel loved and accepted. How would they do this? Their human way would supersede this Creator of the universe in the way they live.

Whatever is first in your soul and heart has become your lord and master. Many in the Christian world have placed their work before the Master, where what they do is more important than spending time with the Master.

The Master King Jesus must always be first. The way He would bring you to move would be the way you must go. In fact, His way overrules all human authority. Now here is where you must see it based on what the Lord has given.

LEVELS OF AUTHORITY

All authority is placed in order by the Great King Jesus. King Jesus will not move against His system. If He has a leader, you must submit to the leader, but when Yahweh tells you to move from under that leader to follow His way in a different will, you must go and do what the Highest Authority has given you to do.

Usurping your authority is: you moving in pride. This is not the way the Great I AM would will. You will have to submit to what you move under. As the Great King would see it, He can move you to a new way to be with an authority that submits to the leading of the Great King Jesus, so that His ultimate will, will be moved upon to complete it.

God is the Great I AM (Yahweh, King Jesus), and He is the Ultimate Authority. King Jesus releases different levels of authority to those within the earth. This is not just a church way; this is the way of order in the earth itself.

Now, why would this be critical to understanding how to deal with demon influences? One should know that even demons have a structure they follow. They all report to their master, Satan, and the moving that they bring into the earth will move against the order of the Great King Jesus.

JOINING IN WITH DEMONS

Now, how does one come to join in with the levels of demon influences? People don't see that first: demons move to lure you through things that seem harmless and fun. Some think that there are good types of magic and bad types of magic. Some believe that there are good witches and bad witches.

Some think that there is a good joining to demons or a deeper way to bring in the bad demons. This mentality is a way of deception. There is only one form of demon; they are given their orders through Satan.

Demons do not think you are worth anything. They come to use you and disrupt the purpose of God. There is no good or anything within a demon that takes on the nature of God. Don't be deceived. The ultimate plan of a demon is to take you to Hell for all eternity. They move against God and His way to bring in a great harvest of souls.

Demons look to move in the weakness of that person to take a place of residence within. They don't care if you are young or old. They don't care if you have a certain skin color or if you worship a certain moving: They look for an open door to move to come and take up residence within. This doesn't mean the person is possessed: The person will still be able to do their own will coherently. It's just that the person may now have any dealings such as these: oppression, depression, various cravings not of their nature, obsession.

In areas where a person yields to demons, there may be deep movings to sin in deeper ways that seem uncontrollable; and then possession, where that person is fully moving in a way, where they are under the control of demon influences. Most people who reach this state are kept away from the outlets in society: They have been locked up to keep from taking a way to destruct, whether it is their own body or the others they meet.

Some demons bring a person to move to take up a certain disease or illness. This can be in the family, where a person may take up the same family sickness just due to being within the family. Some people have various addictions noted with a parent or engage in sinful actions—just as a parent they once had, did to their children.

Some people say it is a repeat—to do what a parent did. What would bring a release in the family to keep these same addictions and actions from going to the next generation? Wouldn't it be wise to seek the Great Holy Spirit to see what the root of the detail really is instead of dismissing it as a family disease or a sinful deed?

Should divorce run in the person's family? Should all the children suffer abuse due to a relative? Should the pastor still be given the position to lead when it is known they sin with a church member? What is the law of the God that we serve? Should we join in communion with a sinful behavior yet drink from King Jesus? Know that the King has unmeasurable power; He is able to bring healing and wholeness to the worst of sinners.

SPIRITUAL LAWS

I can tell most do not think this is based on supernatural interaction, but there is a real connection to the natural and the spiritual. Just take the act of taking communion. Most would look at it as just a thing to do when it's passed in the pew at the church building. But note carefully what the Scriptures say concerning taking communion: Those who engage in this way of coming before a holy God in a way, where they have not prepared themselves through releasing sin to God in the way given before, they would take on a process that could release sickness to their body, or even death itself.

Most would blame the devil for all disease and sickness, yet the Word of God is clear that due to this detail, the Lord will keep His promise, and the spiritual law would be carried out. The opposite concerning this way is clear: Those who stand before the Great King Jesus with clean hands and a pure heart when taking communion will drink healing. Do you see it? This is a spiritual law that is just as effective as sowing and reaping.

Note that you cannot move in deep sin yet expect not to open yourself to demon influences.

Demons take whatever spiritual door is open. They tempt you through testing the weak places to see if you would submit to what is given. They move to come in within a person in groups. They move to bring greater levels of sin within, to bring a person to full destruction in all parts within. This is why some would say that they never thought they would be this deep in sinful dealings.

People look at others with their sin and say they would never do those details. But one must know that you don't have to meet this fate as that person by doing major evil acts, in your eyes. All it takes is moving to allow the enemy to be in you, to come and take you through those details you think are minor sins.

Check yourself when you think your sin is not that major in your eyes than another, for the Word of God says that the wages of sin is death. It doesn't say that the greater the sin, the way you will go is to be given over to destruction.

Yahweh will not lead you to sin. Demons will take full advantage of the weakness you have not released to King Jesus. This is where the believer in Christ must see that the spirit within could be filled with the Holy Spirit, yet the person's soul and heart could be diseased by hurtful details that still need to be released or healed through the blood of King Jesus.

But will the people share their true way with the Great King Jesus so He can bring full healing within? This is the question to consider. For if you do not deal with the issue within, you are giving the enemy a way that could lead to an entryway for the demon to come and bring ways to get you deeper into a way where you move in a different direction than what God has given for you to do.

THE MOVINGS OF DEMONS

Demons behave in different ways. Some will move to take position over a person, place, or thing. These are general dealings. Most deal with demon influences that move to torment through various basic ways such as addictions, curses, oppression, and fear. Demons move to bring a person to live under different forms of bondage.

What is not known is that the demon may present itself as the Lord Himself to engage. These demons come to people in the middle of the night to bring a different interaction that most would not expect. They move in sexual dealings with the victim who thinks they have been with Yahweh in a sexual way. These demons would cause a woman to fall into this trap by appearing to her in a plan, where she thinks she is showing the Lord love by engaging in sex with this demon. She thinks she is in a sexual way with Jesus, yet it is truly a demon. Beware of this demon.

These same sexual demons will also appear to male victims to bring sexual release to this person in natural senses, where that person would move to enjoy this due to needing a way to bring a way of pleasure within. This demon moves to appear as a female who is there to bring you a way of sexual pleasure. This should be noted that both forms of this moving of demon influence work through sexual interaction.

How can a demon have sex with a human? It is indeed true where the demon can materialize to complete this dealing. Just as it is possible to entertain angels without knowing they are angels due to appearing human (Hebrews 13:2), it is the same for the demon influence, where they may move to complete their dealing through deception in this way. Be on your guard for various ways these demons can move to complete it in the way to bring great deception.

There are also demons over various establishments, where the nature of the infrastructure takes on the nature of the demon influence. It is as all under that infrastructure would be influenced to take up that nature as given by the work. There is a spiritual involvement.

This is how cults and the clubs work, where they deal with taking oaths and vows to join in their secret society. The more you dig into their culture, the greater the demon influence. This bondage is deep in most secret societies, where they will kill you for speaking the secret within their way.

Even various churches have different oaths to drink that are not scriptural that put the people in different ways of bondage. Some oaths are demon-influenced, and others are not. But the people look to a ritual to drink instead of learning to hear the voice of the Savior to know which way to go.

Be careful of oaths to others who will move to bring you into various levels of demon influences. They will say it is this way, yet the people who drink it will note a shift as they become a part of their new joining. It is due to being connected in spiritual ways.

Know those you would choose to join with. This means knowing what is within that person and who their God is. Know the Great King Jesus for your way and listen to His Spirit to avoid being deceived.

Demons operate over cities and nations. The greater the demon, the more authority to war in the Great Way's plan is required. Do not move to war against a demon over a nation when you are not given the task to do so. If you move to war against a level of demon influence you have not been trained or equipped to deal with, you will endanger yourself or those who move with you to be in deep warfare that would cause weakness, destruction, or hurtful movings due to this engagement you were not given to deal with.

STAY IN YOUR FIELD

Stay in the field you are to work in the Kingdom of the Great King Jesus. What about those called to a nation? And what of those given worldwide callings? To move in this way of authority would be a great deal of work to do in the spiritual. They must know that they have been given this work to do. And not only should they know it, but they should also wait to go out to the field until they have the authority and filling of the Great King Jesus to do the work given to drink.

A calling is not enough to go to work for King Jesus. There must be a release to do the work given to do. People must be careful about what they say they are being sent to do. Churches pray over people, releasing them to go to the next place, and that person is not ready for what they will deal with. They may go to live there, or they may even be in the will of the Great King Jesus, yet the people must know if it is time to release.

If a release is done before the preparation is complete, the person may spiritually fall due to not being ready to deal with that level of interaction. A calling is not the gauge to go to work. Being ready through training and preparation is crucial to warring in a field of any size.

Now that there is mostly a moving of false delivering, people think that the unseen way is fake; they don't embrace the will you will take them. This refers to ministers who move to get the people in their way of joining in embracing their movement through emotional means.

There is no source of life that will come through emotional interaction. The way that there will be a great flowing of life and power will only come through the Great Holy Spirit as He moves to pour forth the plan of the Great King Jesus.

In the spirit realm, demons view people differently. Unless you have your tools, your armor, your weapons, your authority in the Savior, you could move to war in a way that can defeat you. You must know your position in the spiritual way. This is what is seen by the angels and the demons.

Note that this is not what the leaders would bring to call you, for, in the unseen way, the person's title means nothing. Demons look to see if you have any authority to get them to submit to you in what you bring them. If the demons look to see who you are in the unseen way through the Savior, doesn't that show you we should know what we have been given to do for the King?

Don't be deceived, thinking that all that is needed is a strong prayer to cause the demons to shake and tremble. Know the will to drink as given by the Great Holy Spirit before moving to do what you think would work well.

Don't follow what others would do to know the will of God. Know the voice of God for yourself so that when you hear a way that is moving you to sin against the Great I AM, you will be equipped to know what to drink in the will of the Great King Jesus.

ANGELS WORKING WITH HUMANS

Know we have angels who are with us. The Great King Jesus sends them to watch over you and bring the will to embrace from the Great King Himself. Angels will protect you. Do not try to get them to do your will. Drink from King Jesus to know what to do to work with the angels who move to protect you.

Give the angels the will to follow as you hear it from the Great Holy Spirit. They will do the will given to the purpose of glorifying the Great King Jesus. Angels will do the work of the Kingdom with humans. This is the plan for Rain and Seersgate, where we work with the angelic host to bring in a great harvest of souls for King Jesus.

The angels that move around us this day are real and very powerful. Angels will not cause you any harm. They serve King Jesus. Angels are given to the believers who serve King Jesus and serve the King by ministering to the saints at our time of need. We should learn what they do to know what they will do to aid in a war.

Gather your strength in the Great Holy Spirit. Learn from the Master Teacher named Yahweh, and drink from His Spirit. Taste and see that the Lord is good. Know that the war in the unseen way has been determined. The end is already known and is moving to be revealed throughout the earth. A great many souls will show the plan as it is given to the people to drink.

Stay in the purpose you have been given by the Great Holy Spirit. Stay close to King Jesus. Stay in your field and not in your neighbor's. The battle is in the plan to be revealed through great movings of the Great Holy Spirit.

Now that you have been given an outline of dealing with demons, we can move in stages, take different outlets to move against, learn how to deal with demons, and bring even greater insight. This training is so that the world will know and see it—the plan for worldwide shaking.
