

GOODBYE, VIRGINIA BEACH

YAHWEH:

Are you ready to seal the fates of all of their way? Are you ready to turn? How am I going to turn your way? By pushing forward your ten-year world prophet training plan. You still have to lose all of the former weight, but that is not a hindering power way. I'm ready to push out the full powerful way. We spent a lot of funds on this hotel, but it was a representation of Yahweh shifting your way.

I now bring forward a way of a permanent judging, a sealing of the former way.

I judge that man who said that We (Yahweh) are not real and has turned others to say you are a fake, heretic, an unstable way. They all say in unison you are not in your sound mind. They call you a crazy way, but I will only charge the leader of the pack. You will never have to see him ever again. I bind him in the spirit realm, and I put a permanent mark on him that calls for a placement in the Hell. He is doomed to the Hell, and it's permanent.

The next way:

There will be a turning away from viewing him. He will take in great regret for his way to move in a separation.

The next way:

She is going to view you in a jealous, spiteful way. And there will be no building up of a friendship as long as the former way is stealing Yahweh's way in first placement. I will review her way in ten years.

Now, next:

Mi___ has two parents that are standing on their own side. And Mi___ will not train with your way any longer. I strip him of the level of surging and place him as a city, seeing way. I will not give him a new power way until his twentieth birthday. All training is stripped from him until I review him. He will no longer be an heir. His parents have curses. I will not give them credit to move into their own power way because that's what they will do. They will see he has great power and will move and say, "Look at my son; see how I have favor due to what office he has." Parents, living through their children. To bless him would have to be through his parents, but I choose to leave them all alone.

Now the final permanent power way:

She has begged Us to kill you. She prayed for your death and for your aging in a quick way. She begged for you to be the loser in the power plan, and her anger has brought hardship to all involved. Her heart is as a stone, dried up and impenetrable. He could not make her turn, and she has spoken such hatred that I cannot overlook it.

I trained you as a prophet of old. If they read first and second Kings, the crowds would understand that I will not grant such hatred and anger ways to go unpunished. A servant is a representative under Yahweh, and how I handle the ones who come against the protocol of the office is by swift judgment.

I gave this person some years to repent. Her mentor chose not to be honest, and I will handle her later. I will not remove this judgment. I will blind her spiritually. I will cause her to shrivel up and age quickly. The curse is attached to your mantle. I will hide My face from her. I will not call out to talk. I will not speak to her through My Word. There will be a darkness that takes over. I will give her over to Satan for continual torment while in the Hell.

And now, I say no more waiting. I will wait no longer for your enemy to bend. We had you on a three-year hold for the bitter person to have a part of a humble plan. And now she thinks she hears from My will. Her mentor lied. Her mentor gave her a false presentation of your real way. Her mentor is under My hard hand and will never have her plans come forward. She will drink demons and will pass those demons back and forth to her mentored _____. I now set her to the Hell. I now remove all protective coverings. I now ban her from being healed in the work of Rain. Her heart hasn't turned, and it never will.

Say goodbye to the former way, world prophet.
